

Internal Revenue Service Webinar
EITC Due Diligence

Be Diligent. Do what's right. And give your clients their due.

Get answers and guidance during this FREE 1-hour webinar...

Topic: EITC Due Diligence

Date: Tuesday, December 8, 2015

Time: 11:00 a.m. Pacific Time
9:00 a.m. Hawaii Time

Highlights of What's Covered:

- Identify the EITC due diligence requirements
- Determine when a paid preparer should complete and submit Form 8867
- Recognize how some Schedule C filers fraudulently try to maximize their EITC
- Plus live Q&A with IRS Subject Matter Experts

CPE: Earn One CE Credit – Category: Federal Tax

PTIN Holders: In order to get your CE reported to the IRS, ensure that your first name, last name and PTIN match your account. Your PTIN must begin with the letter P followed by 8 numeric characters. If your name and PTIN are incorrectly entered, you may still receive a certificate but your credit will not be reported to the IRS.

Register & Attend: <https://www.webcaster4.com/Webcast/Page/1148/11753>

Presented by:

IRS Stakeholder Liaison Western Area and EITC & Refundable Credits Outreach

Please share this with your members, staff, colleagues and anyone who may benefit from this information.

Stakeholder Liaison Western Area

Small Business/Self-Employed

See what you can learn today -- or if today's not good for you, then tomorrow -- take advantage of the IRS Video Portal