Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 1040-SS and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/ Form1040SS.

What's New

Additional child tax credit. For tax year 2024:

- The maximum additional child tax credit (ACTC) amount is $1,700 for each qualifying child.
- A child must be under age 17 at the end of 2024 to be a qualifying child.

Maximum income subject to social security tax for 2024. For 2024, the maximum amount of self-employment income subject to social security tax is $168,600.

Maximum income subject to social security tax for 2025. For 2025, the maximum amount of self-employment income subject to social security tax is $176,100.

Optional methods to figure net earnings. For 2024, the maximum income for using the optional methods is $6,920.

Reminders

Due date of return. File Form 1040-SS by April 15, 2025.

Form 1040-SS redesign. Form 1040-PR has been discontinued. For 2023 and later years, you will file Form 1040-SS.

Refer to *Form 1040-SS Helpful Hints*, later, for a comprehensive discussion, including references to the Instructions for Schedule C (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Business; Schedule F (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Farming; and Schedule SE (Form 1040), Self-Employment Tax.

Form 1040-SS Helpful Hints

Use Schedule C (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Business; Schedule F (Form 1040), Profit or Loss From Farming; or Schedule SE (Form 1040), Self-Employment Tax, to complete your return.

You may only need to file Form 1040-SS and none of the schedules. However, if your return is more complicated (for example, you claim certain deductions or credits or owe additional taxes), you will need to complete one or more of the schedules. Below is a general guide to which schedule(s) you will need to file based on your circumstances. See the instructions for the schedules for more information. If you e-file your return, the software you use will generally determine which schedules you need.

You will need the Instructions for Schedules C, F, and SE. Throughout these instructions, you are directed to go to the Instructions for Schedule C (Form 1040), Schedule F (Form 1040), or Schedule SE (Form 1040) for details on how to complete a line. But, in most instances, you will need to look at whether you must take exceptions into consideration when applying those instructions.

IF YOU . . .	THEN USE . . .
Are a bona fide resident of Puerto Rico and have one or more qualifying children.	Form 1040-SS, Part II
Have profit (loss) from a business you operated or a profession you practiced as a sole proprietor.	Schedule C (Form 1040)
Have (a) wages and expenses as a statutory employee; (b) income and deductions of certain qualified joint ventures; and (c) certain amounts shown on Form 1099, such as Form 1099-MISC, Form 1099-NEC, and Form 1099-K.	Schedule C (Form 1040)  Note. See the instructions on your Form 1099 for more information about what to report on Schedule C (Form 1040).

Have farm income and expenses.	Schedule F (Form 1040)
Have net earnings from self-employment.	Schedule SE (Form 1040)

Form 1040-SS in Spanish. Form 1040-SS and the applicable schedules are available in Spanish.

Estimated tax payments. If you and your spouse expect to owe self-employment (SE) tax of $1,000 or more for 2025, you may need to make estimated tax payments. Use Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, to figure your required payments and for the vouchers to send with your payments.

Disaster tax relief. To find information on the most recent tax relief provisions for taxpayers affected by disaster situations, go to IRS.gov/Disaster. See Pub. 547, Casualties, Disasters, and Thefts, for discussions on the special rules that apply to federally declared disaster areas.

ACTC and bona fide residents of Puerto Rico. Bona fide residents of Puerto Rico are no longer required to have three or more qualifying children to be eligible to claim the ACTC. Bona fide residents of Puerto Rico may be eligible to claim the ACTC if they have one or more qualifying children.

Taxpayer identification number (TIN) required to claim the ACTC. If you don't have a social security number (SSN) or an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) issued on or before the due date of your 2024 Form 1040-SS (including extensions), you can't claim the ACTC on an original or an amended Form 1040-SS. If an ITIN is applied for on or before the due date of your 2024 Form 1040-SS (including extensions) and the IRS issues an ITIN as result of the application, the IRS will consider the ITIN as issued on or before the due date of the return. Also, your qualifying child must have an SSN valid for employment issued prior to the due date of your 2024 Form 1040-SS (including extensions).

For information on how to obtain an SSN, go to *Social Security number and card*.

If you are not eligible for an SSN, you must apply for an ITIN. For more information on ITINs, go to *IRS.gov/ITIN*. Also, see Form W-7 and its instructions.

Refunds for returns that claim the ACTC.

Refunds for returns claiming the ACTC can't be issued before mid-February 2025. For more information, see *IRS.gov/Individuals/Refund-Timing*. This applies to the entire refund, not just the portion associated with the ACTC. For more information on the status of your refund, see *IRS.gov/Refunds*.

Electronic filing. You can e-file Form 1040-SS. For general information about electronic filing, visit *IRS.gov/ Efile*.

Farmers and ranchers affected by drought may be eligible for extension of tax relief. Farmers and ranchers forced to sell certain livestock because of drought conditions may have more time to replace their livestock and defer tax on any gains from the forced sales. See *IRS Tax Tips 2022-152* and *IRS extends relief to farmers and ranchers in 49 states and other areas*.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

This form is for residents of the U.S. Virgin Islands (USVI), Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), and Puerto Rico who are not required to file a U.S. income tax return but who have self-employment income or are eligible to claim certain credits.

Use this form to report net earnings from self-employment (SE) to the United States and, if necessary, pay SE tax on that income. The Social Security Administration (SSA) uses this information to figure your benefits under the social security program. SE tax applies no matter how old you are and even if you are already receiving social security or Medicare benefits.

Bona fide residents of Puerto Rico can also use this form to claim the ACTC, even if the bona fide resident of Puerto Rico does not have to pay SE tax.

See *Who Must File*, later, for additional uses of this form.

You may also be required to file an income tax return with the government of Guam, American Samoa, the USVI, the CNMI, or Puerto Rico. See Pub. 570, Tax Guide for Individuals With Income From U.S.

Territories, and contact your local territory tax office for more information.

How To Get Tax Help

If you have questions about a tax issue, need help preparing your tax return, or want to download free publications, forms, or instructions, see How To Get Tax Help at the end of the instructions. You can find additional resources to help you right away at IRS.gov.

Who Must File

You must file Form 1040-SS if you meet all three requirements below.

1. You (or your spouse if filing a joint tax return) had net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more (or you had church employee income of $108.28 or more—see Church Employees, later). However, see Exceptions, later.
2. You do not have to file Form 1040 with the United States.
3. You are a bona fide resident of:

- a. Guam,
- b. American Samoa,
- c. The USVI,
- d. The CNMI, or
- e. Puerto Rico.

Even if you have a loss or little income from self-employment, it may benefit you to file Form 1040-SS and use either optional method on Schedule SE (Form 1040). See Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part II—Optional Methods To Figure Net Earnings.

Exceptions. If (2) and (3) under Who Must File, earlier, apply, but (1) does not apply, you must file Form 1040-SS to:

- Report and pay household employment taxes;
- Report and pay employee social security and Medicare tax on (a) unreported tips, (b) wages from an employer with no social security or Medicare tax withheld, and (c) uncollected social security and Medicare tax on tips or group-term life insurance (see Part I, Line 6, later);

- Report and pay the Additional Medicare Tax (Part I, Line 5, later);
- Claim excess social security tax withheld; and
- Claim the ACTC.

Who Must Pay SE Tax

Self-Employed Persons

You must pay SE tax if you had net earnings of $400 or more as a self-employed person. If you are in business (nonfarm or farm) for yourself, you are self-employed.

You must also pay SE tax on your share of certain partnership income and your guaranteed payments. See Partnership Income or Loss under the Instructions for Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I.

Church Employees

If you had church employee income of $108.28 or more, you must pay SE tax on that income. Church employee income is wages you received as an employee (other than as a minister or member of a religious order) of a church or qualified church-controlled organization that has a certificate in effect electing exemption from employer social security and Medicare taxes.

If your only income subject to SE tax is church employee income, skip lines 1a through 4b on Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I. Enter zero on line 4c and go to line 5a.

Ministers and Members of Religious Orders

In most cases, you must pay SE tax on salaries and other income for services you performed as a minister, a member of a religious order who has not taken a vow of poverty, or a Christian Science practitioner.

But, if you filed Form 4361, Application for Exemption From Self-Employment Tax for Use by Ministers, Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners, and received IRS approval, you will be exempt from paying SE tax on those net earnings. If you had no other income subject to SE tax and do not owe any of the taxes listed earlier under Who Must File, you aren't required to file Form 1040-SS. However, if you had other earnings of $400 or more subject to SE tax, see Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, lines 4a through 4c.

If you have ever filed Form 2031 to elect social security coverage on your earnings as a minister, you cannot revoke that election.

If you must pay SE tax on certain income, include this income on Schedule C (Form 1040), line 1. But do not report it on Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, line 5a; it isn't considered church employee income.

Also include on Schedule C (Form 1040), line 1:

- The rental value of a home or allowance for a home furnished to you (including payments for utilities); and
- The value of meals and lodging provided to you, your spouse, and your dependents for your employer's convenience.

However, do not include on Schedule C (Form 1040), line 1:

- Retirement benefits you received from a church plan after retirement, or
- The rental value of or allowance for a home furnished to you (including payments for utilities) after retirement.

If you were an ordained minister, a member of a religious order who has not taken a vow of poverty, or a Christian Science practitioner, and were employed by a church (congregation) for a salary, do not include that income in Schedule C (Form 1040). Instead, figure your SE tax by completing Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, including this income and any rental (parsonage) allowance or the value of meals and lodging provided to you on line 2. On the same line, subtract the allowable amount of any unreimbursed business expenses you incurred as a church employee. Attach an explanation. For details, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Members of Recognized Religious Sects

If you have conscientious objections to social security insurance because of your membership in and belief in the teachings of a religious sect recognized as being in existence at all times since December 31, 1950, and which has provided a reasonable level of living for its dependent members, you can request exemption from SE tax by filing

Form 4029, Application for Exemption From Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits. If you filed Form 4029 and have received IRS approval, don't file Form 1040-SS. See Pub. 517 for details.

Employees of Foreign Governments or International Organizations

You must pay SE tax on income you earned as a U.S. citizen or a resident of Puerto Rico employed by a foreign government (or, in certain cases, by a wholly owned instrumentality of a foreign government or an international organization under the International Organizations Immunities Act) for services performed in the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the USVI, or the CNMI. Report income from this employment on Schedule C (Form 1040), line 1. Enter the net amount from Schedule C (Form 1040), Part II, line 31, on Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, line 2. If you performed services elsewhere as an employee of a foreign government or an international organization, those earnings are exempt from SE tax.

Commonwealth or Territory Residents Living Abroad

In most cases, if you are a bona fide resident of Guam, American Samoa, the USVI, the CNMI, or Puerto Rico living outside the territories or United States, you must still pay any applicable SE tax.

Exception. The United States has social security agreements with many countries to eliminate dual taxes under two social security systems. Under these agreements, in most cases, you must pay social security and Medicare taxes or foreign health insurance only to the country you live in.

If you have questions about international social security agreements, visit the SSA

International Programs website at SSA.gov/international for more information.

Even if you don't have to pay SE tax because of a social security agreement, you may still have to file a tax return with the IRS.

Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Cases

While you are a debtor in a chapter 11 bankruptcy case, your net profit or loss from self-employment will be included on the income tax return (Form 1041) of the bankruptcy estate. However, you (not the bankruptcy estate) are responsible for paying SE tax on your net earnings from self-employment.

On the dotted line next to Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, line 3, enter "Chap. 11 bankruptcy income" and also enter the amount of your net profit or (loss). Combine that amount with the total of lines 1a, 1b, and 2 (if any) and enter the result on line 3.

For other reporting requirements, see Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Cases in the Instructions for Form 1040.

More Than One Business

If you were a farmer and had at least one other business or you had two or more nonfarm businesses, your net earnings from self-employment are the combined net earnings from all of your businesses. If you had a loss in one business, it reduces the income from another.

Complete and file only one Form 1040-SS for any 1 year. Attach a separate Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040) for each trade or business, and combine the net earnings on a single Schedule SE (Form 1040).

Joint returns. If both you and your spouse have self-employment income from separate nonfarm or farm businesses, each of you must complete and file a separate Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). Be sure to enter at the top of each Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040) the name and SSN of the spouse who owns the business. Each of you must also complete a separate Schedule SE (Form 1040). Attach these pages to a single Form 1040-SS.

Business Owned and Operated by Spouses

If you and your spouse jointly own and operate an unincorporated business (nonfarm or farm) and share in the profits and losses, you are partners in a partnership, whether or not you have a formal partnership agreement. Do not use Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040). Instead, file the appropriate partnership return.

Exception—Qualified joint venture (QJV).

If you and your spouse materially participate (see Material participation in the Instructions for Schedule C (Form 1040)) as the only members of a jointly owned and operated business, and you file a joint Form 1040-SS for the tax year, you can make a joint election to be taxed as a QJV instead of a partnership.

To make this election, you must divide all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit attributable to the business between you and your spouse in accordance with your respective interests in the venture. Each of you must file a separate Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040), as well as a separate Schedule SE (Form 1040). On each line of your separate Schedule C (Form 1040) or Schedule F (Form 1040), you must enter your share of the applicable income, deductions, and losses. For more information on this election, see the Instructions for Schedule E (Form 1040).

For more information on QJVs, go to IRS.gov/QJV.

Rental real estate business. If you and your spouse make the QJV election for your rental real estate business, in most cases, the income isn't subject to SE tax (for an exception, see item 3 under Other Income and Losses Included in Net Earnings From Self-Employment in the Instructions for Schedule SE (Form 1040)).

If the QJV election is made for a farm rental business that isn't included in self-employment, the income isn't subject to SE tax. Don't include the income on Form 1040-SS. Depending on the source of the income (territory, U.S. source, or other foreign source), you may need to file other tax forms. See Pub. 570 and Form 4835, Farm Rental Income and Expenses, for more information.

Community income. If you and your spouse wholly own an unincorporated business as community property under the community property laws of a state, foreign country, or U.S. territory, the income and deductions are reported based on the following.

- If only one spouse participates in the business, all of the income from that business is the self-employment earnings of the spouse who carried on the business.
- If both spouses participate, the income and deductions are allocated to the spouses based on their distributive shares.
- If either or both you and your spouse are partners in a partnership, see Partnership Income or Loss in the Instructions for Schedule SE (Form 1040).
- If you and your spouse elected to treat the business as a QJV, see Exception—Qualified joint venture \(QJV\), earlier.

Where To File

If you're enclosing a payment, send your Form 1040-SS to:

Internal Revenue Service

P.O. Box 1303

Charlotte, NC 28201-1303

If you're not enclosing a payment, send your Form 1040-SS to:

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
Austin, TX 73301-0215

Private Delivery Services

If you choose to mail your return, you can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the timely mailing treated as timely filing/paying rule for tax returns and payments. These private delivery services include only the following.

- UPS Next Day Air Early A.M., UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, UPS 2nd Day Air A.M., UPS Worldwide Express Plus, and UPS Worldwide Express.
- FedEx First Overnight, FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, FedEx 2 Day, FedEx International Next

To check for any updates to the list of designated private delivery services, go to IRS.gov/PDS. For the IRS mailing address to use if you're using a private delivery service, go to IRS.gov/PDSStreetAddresses.

The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of the mailing date.

Only the U.S. Postal Service can deliver to P.O. boxes. You can't use a private delivery service to make tax payments required to be sent to a P.O. box.

When To File

If you file on a calendar-year basis, file by April 15, 2025. If you file after this date, you may have to pay interest and penalties. See *Interest and Penalties*, later.

If you file on a fiscal year basis, file by the 15th day of the 4th month after the close of your fiscal year.

Extension of Time To File

If you can't file Form 1040-SS by the due date, you can get an extension of time to file the form. In some cases, you can get an extension of time to file and pay any tax due.

Bona fide residents of Puerto Rico. You can apply for an automatic 6-month extension of time to file Form 1040-SS (until October 15, 2025, for calendar year taxpayers). To get this automatic extension, you must file Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, by the regular due date of your return (April 15, 2025, for calendar year taxpayers). You can file Form 4868 either by paper or electronically through IRS e-file. For details, see the Form 4868 instructions.

An automatic 6-month extension to file does not extend the time to pay your tax. Any interest due on unpaid taxes is calculated from the original due date of the return.

Bona fide residents of American Samoa, the CNMI, Guam, or the USVI. You can apply for the automatic 6-month extension described earlier, or you can receive an automatic 2-month extension and then apply for an additional 4-month extension if you still need more time.

Automatic 2-month extension. You are allowed an automatic 2-month extension to file your return and pay your tax if you are outside the United States and Puerto Rico on the day Form 1040-SS is due (April 15, 2025, for calendar year taxpayers). Although you have an extension of time to pay your tax, interest on any unpaid tax will be charged from the original due date of the tax return.

To get this automatic extension, you must file Form 1040-SS by the extended due date (June 16, 2025, for calendar year taxpayers) and attach a statement explaining that on the regular due date of your tax return you were a bona fide resident of American Samoa, the CNMI, Guam, or the USVI.

Additional 4-month extension. If you can't file your tax return within the automatic 2-month extension period, in most cases, you can get an additional 4 months to file your tax return, for a total of 6 months. File Form 4868 by the extended due date allowed by the 2-month extension (June 16, 2025, for calendar year taxpayers). Follow the instructions for completing Form 4868, and be sure to check the box on line 8.

Unlike the original 2-month extension, the additional 4 months of time to file is not an extension of time to pay. You must make an accurate estimate of your tax based on the information available to you. If you find you can't pay the full amount due with Form 4868, you can still get the extension. You will owe interest on the unpaid amount from the original due date of the tax return.

Where to file extension. If you're enclosing a payment, send Form 4868 with your payment to:

Internal Revenue Service
P.O. Box 1302
Charlotte, NC 28201-1302

If you're not enclosing a payment, send Form 4868 to:

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
Austin, TX 73301-0215

Automatic 60-day extension for taxpayers affected by federally declared disasters. Certain taxpayers affected by federally declared disasters may be eligible for an automatic 60-day extension for filing tax returns, paying taxes, and performing other tasks required by the IRS. For more information, see Pub. 547.

Specific Instructions

Fiscal Year Filers

If your tax year is a fiscal year, use the tax rate and annual earnings limit that apply at the time the fiscal year begins. Don't prorate the tax or annual earnings limit for a fiscal year that overlaps the date of a change in the tax or annual earnings limit.

Name and SSN

To ensure proper credit to your social security account, enter your name and SSN, and your spouse's if filing a joint tax return, exactly as shown on your social security card. If you do not have an SSN, you should get one. For information on how to obtain an SSN, go to SSA.gov/ssnumber.

If you are not eligible for an SSN, you must apply for an ITIN. For more information on ITINs, go to IRS.gov/ITIN. Also, see Form W-7 and its instructions.

Digital Assets

Digital assets are any digital representations of value that are recorded on a cryptographically secured distributed ledger or any similar technology. For example, digital assets include non-fungible tokens (NFTs) and virtual currencies, such as cryptocurrencies and stablecoins. If a particular asset has the characteristics of a digital asset, it will be treated as a digital asset for federal income tax purposes.

Check the “Yes” box next to the question on digital assets on page 1 of Form 1040-SS, if at any time during 2024, you (a) received (as a reward, award, or payment for property or services); or (b) sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of a digital asset (or any financial interest in any digital asset).

For example, check “Yes” if at any time during 2024 you:

- Received digital assets as payment for property or services provided;
- Received digital assets as a result of a reward or award;
- Received new digital assets as a result of mining, staking, and similar activities;
- Received digital assets as a result of a hard fork;
- Disposed of digital assets in exchange for property or services;
- Disposed of a digital asset in exchange or trade for another digital asset;

- Sold a digital asset; or
- Otherwise disposed of any other financial interest in a digital asset.

You have a financial interest in a digital asset if you are the owner of record of a digital asset, or have an ownership stake in an account that holds one or more digital assets, including the rights and obligations to acquire a financial interest, or you own a wallet that holds digital assets.

The following actions or transactions in 2024, alone, generally don't require you to check "Yes":

- Holding a digital asset in a wallet or account;
- Transferring a digital asset from one wallet or account you own or control to another wallet or account that you own or control; or

- Purchasing digital assets using U.S. or other real currency, including through the use of electronic platforms such as PayPal and Venmo.

Do not leave the question unanswered. You must answer “Yes” or “No” by checking the appropriate box. For more information, go to IRS.gov/VirtualCurrencyFAQs.

How To Report Digital Asset Transactions

If, in 2024, you disposed of any digital asset, which you held as a capital asset through a sale, trade, exchange, payment, or other transfer, check “Yes” and see Pub. 570 for details on whether you have to file Form 1040 with the United States to report your capital gains or losses. If you have to file Form 1040 with the United States, you cannot file this form. If you have questions about how to report a digital asset transaction on your territory income tax return, contact your local territory tax office for more information.

If you received any digital assets as compensation for services, or disposed of any digital asset that you held for sale to customers in a trade or business, you must report the income on Schedule C (Form 1040) and/or Schedule F (Form 1040).

If you disposed of any digital asset by gift, you may be required to file Form 709, United States Gift (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return. See Who Must File and Transfers Subject to the Gift Tax in the Instructions for Form 709 for more information.

Part I—Total Tax and Credits

Line 1

Check the filing status that applies to you.

More than one filing status can apply to you. Taxpayers who aren't married will pay the same tax under all filing statuses for which they qualify (single, head of household, and qualifying surviving spouse). However, married taxpayers who owe additional Medicare tax on line 5 may pay less tax if they qualify for and choose the head of household filing status instead of married filing separately. You can choose the one for which you qualify that will give you the lowest tax.

Single

You can check the “Single” box if, at the end of 2024, you were unmarried or legally separated from your spouse according to your state law under a divorce or separate maintenance decree.

Married Filing Jointly

You can choose this filing status if you were married at the end of 2024 and both you and your spouse agree to file a joint tax return, even if you didn't live with your spouse at the end of 2024. You can also choose this filing status if your spouse died in 2024 and you didn't remarry in 2024.

If you choose to file a joint tax return, check the box for married filing jointly and include your spouse's name and SSN on the lines provided below your name and SSN. If your spouse also had self-employment income, complete and attach a separate Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, and, if applicable, Part II. If necessary, attach a separate Schedule C (Form 1040) and/or Schedule F (Form 1040) for your spouse's nonfarm or farm business.

Joint and several tax liability. If you file a joint tax return, both you and your spouse are generally responsible for the tax and any interest or penalties due on the tax return. This means that if one spouse doesn't pay the tax due, the other may have to. Or, if one spouse doesn't report the correct tax, both spouses may be responsible for any additional taxes assessed by the IRS.

However, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief from an existing tax liability on your joint tax return if:

- There is an understatement of the amount of tax because your spouse omitted income or claimed false deductions or credits;
- You are divorced, separated, or no longer living with your spouse; or
- Given all the facts and circumstances, it wouldn't be fair to hold you liable for the tax.

File Form 8857 to request innocent spouse relief. Some requests for innocent spouse relief may need to be filed within 2 years of the date on which the IRS first attempted to collect the tax from you. For more information, go to IRS.gov/InnocentSpouse.

Nonresident aliens and dual-status

aliens. Generally, a married couple can't file a joint return if either spouse is a nonresident alien at any time during the year. However, you and your spouse can choose to be treated as U.S. residents for the entire year and file a joint return if one spouse was a nonresident alien at the end of the taxable year (the nonresident spouse) and the other was a U.S. citizen or resident at the end of the taxable year. This choice remains in effect in subsequent years until terminated. You and your spouse can also choose to file as U.S. residents for the entire year if both of you are U.S. citizens or residents at the end of the year and either (or both) of you were a nonresident at the beginning of the year (the dual-status spouse(s)). You can only make this choice for 1 year, and it does not apply to any future years.

To make either choice for 2024, you and your spouse must file a joint return and attach a statement, signed by both spouses, to your return. To find out what information must be included in the statement, as well as more information on these choices, see Nonresident Spouse Treated as a Resident for nonresident aliens and Choosing Resident Alien Status for dual-status aliens in Pub. 519.

Married Filing Separately

Check the “Married filing separately” box if at the end of 2024 you were married, and file a separate tax return. Enter your spouse’s name in the entry space below the filing status checkboxes. Be sure to enter your spouse’s SSN or ITIN in the space for spouse’s SSN. If your spouse doesn't have and isn't required to have an SSN or ITIN, enter “NRA” next to their name in the entry space below the filing status checkboxes.

For electronic filing, enter the spouse's name or “NRA” if the spouse doesn’t have an SSN or ITIN in the entry space below the filing status checkboxes.

If you are married and file a separate tax return, generally, you are responsible only for the tax on your own income. However, you will usually pay more tax than if you use another filing status for which you qualify.

You may be able to file as head of household if you had a child living with you and you lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2024.

Head of Household

A head of household is someone who is unmarried (or is considered unmarried) and provides a home for certain other persons.

If you owe Additional Medicare Tax on line 5, were married at the end of 2024, but lived apart from your spouse for the last 6 months of 2024 and do not claim a qualifying child for the ACTC, see

Head of Household in Pub. 501, Dependent, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for additional rules for this filing status.

You can check the “Head of household” box if, at the end of 2024, you are unmarried (or are considered unmarried), claim a qualifying child for the ACTC, and paid over half the costs of keeping up a home in which you lived with your qualifying child.

You are considered unmarried for this purpose if any of the following applies.

- You were legally separated according to your state law under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance at the end of 2024. But if, at the end of 2024, your divorce wasn't final (an interlocutory decree), you are considered married.
- You are married but lived apart from your spouse for the last 6 months of 2024 and you meet the other rules under Married persons who live apart, later.

- You are married and your spouse was a nonresident alien at any time during the year and the election to treat the alien spouse as a resident alien is not made.

Qualifying child. A child you claim for the ACTC is a qualifying child for this filing status. Your adopted child is always treated as your own child. See *Qualifying child*, later.

However, don't include as your qualifying child for this filing status any child you claim for the ACTC because of the rule for Children of divorced or separated parents (or parents who live apart) in Pub. 501 or under a multiple support agreement. See Qualifying Child of More Than One Person in Pub. 501.

The qualifying children you claim for the ACTC are those you list by name and SSN in the qualifying children section on Part I, line 2, of Form 1040-SS.

Keeping up a home. To find out what is included in the cost of keeping up a home, see Keeping up a home in Pub. 501.

Married persons who live apart. Even if you weren't divorced or legally separated at the end of 2024, you are considered unmarried if all of the following apply.

- You lived apart from your spouse for the last 6 months of 2024. Temporary absences for special circumstances, such as for business, medical care, school, or military service, count as time lived in the home.
- You file a separate tax return from your spouse. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home for 2024.
- Your home was the main home of your child, stepchild, or foster child for more than half of 2024. If the child didn't live with you for the required time, see Temporary absences in Pub. 501.
- You can claim this child as your dependent or could claim the child except that the child's other parent can claim him or her under the rule for Children of divorced or separated parents (or parents who live apart) in Pub. 501.

Foster child. A foster child is any child placed with you by an authorized placement agency or by judgment, decree, or other order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

Qualifying Surviving Spouse

You can check the “Qualifying surviving spouse” box if all of the following apply.

1. Your spouse died in 2022 or 2023 and you didn't remarry before the end of 2024.
2. You have a child or stepchild (not a foster child) whom you can claim as a dependent or could claim as a dependent except that, for 2024:
  - a. The child had gross income of $5,050 or more,

- b. The child filed a joint tax return, or
- c. You could be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return.

If the child isn't claimed as your dependent, enter the child's name in the entry space below the filing status checkboxes. If you don't enter the name, it will take us longer to process your tax return.

- 3. This child lived in your home for all of 2024. If the child didn't live with you for the required time, see Temporary absences in Pub. 501.
- 4. You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home.
- 5. You could have filed a joint tax return with your spouse the year your spouse died, even if you didn't actually do so.

If your spouse died in 2024, you can't file as qualifying surviving spouse. Instead, see *Married Filing Jointly*, earlier.

Qualifying child. A child or stepchild (not a foster child) you claim for the ACTC is a qualifying child for this filing status. Your adopted child is always treated as your own child. See *Qualifying child*, later. However, don't include as your qualifying child for this filing status any child you claim for the ACTC because of the rule for Children of divorced or separated parents (or parents who live apart) in Pub. 501 or under a multiple support agreement. See Qualifying Child of More Than One Person in Pub. 501.

The qualifying children you claim for the ACTC are those you list by name and SSN in the qualifying children section on Part I, line 2, of Form 1040-SS.

Dependent. To find out if someone is your dependent, see Dependents in Pub. 501.

Keeping up a home. To find out what is included in the cost of keeping up a home, see Keeping up a home in Pub. 501.

Line 2

Enter the name and SSN for each qualifying child for which you are claiming the ACTC. See Qualifying for the Credit under Part II—Bona Fide Residents of Puerto Rico Claiming Additional Child Tax Credit, later, to find if your child is a qualifying child.

Do not enter a person who is a qualifying person for purposes of the credit for other dependents (ODC) on Part I, line 2. Instead, see the instructions for Part II, Line 8, later, for more information.

Line 3

Complete line 3 only if you (or your spouse if filing a joint tax return) had net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more (or church employee income of $108.28 or more).

Enter the amount from Schedule SE (Form 1040), Part I, line 12, and attach Schedule SE (Form 1040) to your return. If applicable, also attach Schedule C (Form 1040) for nonfarm business and Schedule F (Form 1040) for farm business. See Who Must Pay SE Tax, earlier.

Line 4

If either of the following applies, see Schedule H (Form 1040) and its instructions to find out if you owe household employment taxes.

- You paid any one household employee cash wages of $2,700 or more in 2024.
- You paid total cash wages of $1,000 or more in any calendar quarter of 2023 or 2024 to all household employees.

Line 5

Enter the total Additional Medicare Tax from Form 8959, Part IV, line 18, and attach Form 8959 to your return. See Form 8959 and its instructions for more information.

Line 6

Include the following taxes in the line 6 total.

Employee social security and Medicare tax on tips not reported to employer.

Complete Form 4137 if you received cash and charge tips of $20 or more in a calendar month and didn't report all of those tips to your employer. On the dotted line next to Part I, line 6, enter "Tax on tips," and show the amount of tax due (from Form 4137, line 13). Include this tax in the total for line 6 and attach a completed Form 4137 to your return.

Uncollected employee social security and Medicare tax on tips. If you didn't have enough wages to cover the social security and Medicare tax due on tips you reported to your employer, the amount of tax due should be identified with codes A and B in box 12 of your Form W-2AS, W-2CM, W-2GU, or W-2VI; or entered in boxes 25 and 26 of your Form 499R-2/W-2PR. Include this tax in the total for line 6. On the dotted line next to Part I, line 6, enter “Uncollected tax” and show the amount of this tax.

Uncollected employee social security and Medicare tax on group-term life insurance. If you had group-term life insurance through a former employer, you may have to pay social security and Medicare tax on part of the cost of the life insurance. The amount of tax due should be identified with codes M and N in box 12 of your Form W-2AS, W-2CM, W-2GU, or W-2VI. If you are a bona fide resident of Puerto Rico, contact your employer for this amount. Include this tax in the total for line 6. On the dotted line next to Part I, line 6, enter “Uncollected tax” and show the amount of this tax.

Uncollected employee social security and Medicare tax on wages. If you’re an employee who received wages from an employer who didn't withhold social security and Medicare tax from your wages, complete Form 8919 to figure your share of the unreported tax. On the dotted line next to Part I, line 6, enter "Uncollected tax" and show the amount of tax due (from Form 8919, line 13). Include this tax in the total for line 6 and attach the completed Form 8919 to your return.

Line 8

Enter any estimated federal income tax payments you made for 2024, including any overpayment from your 2023 tax return that you applied to your 2024 estimated tax.

If you or your spouse made separate estimated tax payments but are now filing a joint return, add the amounts you each paid and enter the total on line 8. If you and your spouse made joint estimated tax payments but are now filing separate tax returns, you can divide the amount paid in any way you choose as long as you both agree. If you can't agree, you must divide the payments in proportion to each spouse's individual tax as shown on your separate tax return for 2024. For an example of how to do this, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. Show both SSNs in the space provided on the separate returns.

Line 9

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint tax return) had more than one employer for 2024, and total wages of more than $168,600, too much social security tax may have been withheld. You can take a credit on this line for the amount withheld in excess of $10,453.20. But if any one employer withheld more than $10,453.20, you must ask that employer to refund the excess to you. You can't claim it on Form 1040-SS. Figure this amount separately for you and your spouse. You must attach Form W-2AS, W-2CM, W-2GU, W-2VI, or 499R-2/W-2PR to your return. See Pub. 505 for more information.

Line 10

Use Part II and its instructions for information on figuring and claiming any additional child tax credit (ACTC) that you may qualify to claim.

Enter the amount from Part II, line 19.

Line 11a

If you had Additional Medicare Tax withheld by your employer in 2024, enter the amount shown on Form 8959, line 24. Attach Form 8959 to your return. See Form 8959 and its instructions for more information.

Line 11b

If you got an automatic extension of time to file Form 1040-SS by filing Form 4868 or by making a payment, enter the amount of the payment or any amount you paid with Form 4868. If you paid by credit or debit card, don't include the convenience fee you were charged.

Line 13–Amount Overpaid

If line 13 is under $1, we will send a refund only on written request.

Refund Offset

If you owe past-due federal tax, state income tax, state unemployment compensation debts, child support, spousal support, or certain federal nontax debts, such as student loans, all or part of the overpayment on line 13 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. Offsets for federal taxes are made by the IRS. All other offsets are made by the Treasury Department's Bureau of the Fiscal Service. For federal tax offsets, you will receive a notice from the IRS. For all other offsets, you will receive a notice from the Fiscal Service. To find out if you may have an offset or if you have any questions about it, contact the agency to which you owe the debt.

Deposit Refund into Multiple Accounts

If you want your refund to be split and direct deposited into more than one account, file Form 8888, Allocation of Refund. Use Form 8888 to direct deposit your refund (or part of it) to one or more accounts in your name at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union).

Injured Spouse

If you file a joint tax return and your spouse hasn't paid past-due federal tax, state income tax, state unemployment compensation debts, child support, spousal support, or a federal nontax debt, such as a student loan, part or all of the overpayment on line 13 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. But your part of the overpayment may be refunded to you if certain conditions apply and you complete Form 8379, Injured Spouse

Allocation. For details, use Tax Topic 203 or see Form 8379.

Lines 14a Through 14d—Amount Refunded to You

If you want to check the status of your refund, just use the IRS2Go app or go to IRS.gov/Refunds. Information about your refund will generally be available within 24 hours after the IRS receives your e-filed return, or 4 weeks after you mail your paper return. If you filed Form 8379 with your return, wait 14 weeks (11 weeks if you filed electronically). Have your 2024 tax return handy so you can enter your social security number, your filing status, and the exact whole dollar amount of your refund.

Where's My Refund will provide a personalized refund date as soon as the IRS processes your tax return and approves your refund.

Effect of refund on benefits. Any refund you receive can't be counted as income when determining if you or anyone else is eligible for benefits or assistance, or how much you or anyone else can receive, under any federal program or under any state or local program financed in whole or in part with federal funds. These programs include Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Medicaid, and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (formerly food stamps). In addition, when determining eligibility, the refund can't be counted as a resource for at least 12 months after you receive it. Check with your local benefit coordinator to find out if your refund will affect your benefits.

Fast Refunds! Join the eight in 10 taxpayers who choose direct deposit—a fast, simple, safe, secure way to have your refund deposited automatically to your checking or savings account, including an individual retirement arrangement (IRA).

If you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 14a to your checking or savings account at a U.S. bank or other U.S. financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union):

- Complete lines 14b through 14d if you want your refund deposited to only one account, or
- Check the box on line 14a and attach Form 8888 if you want to split the direct deposit of your refund into more than one account.

If you don't want your refund directly deposited to your account, don't check the box on line 14a. Draw a line through the boxes on lines 14b through 14d. The IRS will send you a check instead.

Account must be in your name. Don't request a deposit of your refund to an account that isn't in your name, such as your tax preparer's own account. Although you may owe your tax return preparer a fee for preparing your return, don't have any part of your refund deposited into the preparer's account to pay the fee.

The number of refunds that can be directly deposited to a single account or prepaid debit card is limited to three a year. After this limit is reached, paper checks will be sent instead. Learn more at IRS.gov/DepositLimit.

Why use direct deposit?

- You get your refund faster by direct deposit than you do by check.
- Payment is more secure. There is no check that can get lost or stolen.
- It is more convenient. You don't have to make a trip to the bank to deposit your check.

- It saves tax dollars. It costs the government less to refund by direct deposit.
- It's proven itself. Nearly 98% of social security and veterans' benefits are sent electronically using direct deposit.

Form 8888. You can have your refund directly deposited into more than one account. See the instructions for Form 8888 for more details.

Note. You can't file Form 8888 to split your refund into more than one account if Form 8379 is filed with your return.

Your refund can be split and directly deposited into up to three different accounts in your name on Form 8888.

Line 14b

The routing number for your financial institution must be nine digits. The first two digits must be 01 through 12 or 21 through

32. Otherwise, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead.

Ask your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on line 14b if:

- The routing number on a deposit slip is different from the routing number on your checks,
- Your deposit is to a savings account that doesn't allow you to write checks, or
- Your checks state they are payable through a financial institution different from the one at which you have your checking account.

Line 14c

Check the appropriate box for the type of account. Don't check more than one box. You must check the correct box to ensure your deposit is accepted.

Line 14d

The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. Don't include the check number.

If the direct deposit to your account(s) is different from the amount you expected, you will receive an explanation in the mail about 2 weeks after your refund is deposited.

Reasons Your Direct Deposit Will Be Rejected

If any of the following apply, your direct deposit request will be rejected and a check will be sent instead.

- You are asking to have a joint refund deposited to an individual account, and your financial institution(s) won't allow this. The IRS isn't responsible if a financial institution rejects a direct deposit.

- The name on your account doesn't match the name on the refund, and your financial institution(s) won't allow a refund to be deposited unless the name on the refund matches the name on the account.
- Three direct deposits of tax refunds already have been made to the same account or prepaid debit card.
- You haven't given a valid account number.
- Any numbers or letters on lines 14b through 14d are crossed out or whited out.

The IRS isn't responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information. Check with your financial institution to get the correct routing and account numbers and to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted.

Line 15—Applied to Your 2025 Estimated Tax

Enter on line 15 the amount, if any, of the overpayment on line 13 you want applied to your 2025 estimated tax.

The election to apply part or all of the overpaid amount to your 2025 estimated tax can't be changed later.

Line 16—Amount You Owe

The IRS offers several payment options. You can pay online, by phone, mobile device, cash (maximum $1,000 per day and per transaction), check, or money order.

Payments to U.S. tax must be remitted to the IRS in U.S. dollars, Digital assets are not accepted. Go to IRS.gov/ Payments for payment options. Also, see How To Get Tax Help, later.

Pay Online

Paying online is convenient and secure and helps make sure we get your payments on time. To pay your taxes online or for more information, go to IRS.gov/Payments. You can pay using any of the following methods.

- Your Online Account. You can now make tax payments through your online account, including balance payments, estimated tax payments, or other types of payments. You can also see your payment history and other tax records there. Go to IRS.gov/ Account.
- IRS Direct Pay. For online transfers directly from your checking or savings account at no cost to you.
- Pay by Card or Digital Wallet. To pay by debit or credit card, or digital wallet, go to IRS.gov/Payments. A convenience fee is charged by these service providers. You can also pay by phone with a debit or credit card. See Pay by Phone, later.

- Electronic Funds Withdrawal (EFW) is an integrated e-file/e-pay option offered when filing your federal taxes electronically using tax return preparation software, through a tax professional.
- Online Payment Agreement. If you can't pay in full by the due date of your tax return, you can apply for an online monthly installment agreement at IRS.gov/OPA. Once you complete the online process, you will receive immediate notification of whether your agreement has been approved. A user fee is charged.

Pay by Phone

Paying by phone is another safe and secure method of paying electronically. Use one of the following methods: (1) call one of the debit or credit card service providers, or (2) use the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS) to pay directly from your checking or savings account.

Debit or credit card. To make a payment by phone, call one of our service providers. Each charges a fee that varies by provider, card type, and payment amount.

Pay by Mobile Device

To pay through your mobile device, download the IRS2Go app.

Pay by Cash

You can pay your taxes in cash. To find out about the different cash payment methods, go to IRS.gov/PayCash. Don't send cash payments through the mail.

Pay by Check or Money Order

Before submitting a payment through the mail, please consider alternative methods. One of our safe, quick, and easy electronic payment options might be right for you. If you choose to mail a tax payment, make your check or money order payable to "United States Treasury" for the full amount due. Don't send cash. Don't attach the payment to your return. Write "2024 Form 1040-SS" and your name, address, daytime phone number, and social security number (SSN) on your payment and attach Form 1040-V. For the most up-to-date information on Form 1040-V, go to IRS.gov/Form1040V. If you are filing a joint return, enter the SSN shown first on your tax return.

To help us process your payment, enter the amount on the right side of the check like this: $ XXX.XX. Don't use dashes or lines (for example, don't enter "$ XXX-" or "$ XXX xx/100").

Mail your 2024 tax return, payment, and Form 1040-V to the address shown on the form that applies to you. If you e-filed your return, but choose to make a payment through the mail, mail your 2024 payment and Form 1040-V to the address shown on the form that applies to you.
