

Your return may be impacted by IRS System Reprogramming

Please return beginning February 14, 2011; if your return contain any of the following deductions/adjustments:

- Mortgage interest
- State and local tax
- Charitable deductions
- Higher education tuition and fees
- Medical and dental expenses
- Educator expenses deduction
- State and local general sales taxes
- District of Columbia 1st Time Homebuyer Credit
- Certain Casualty and Theft losses

Both paper and electronically filed returns containing these provisions are impacted by this situation and cannot be processed until the IRS systems are available on February 14, 2011.

We apologize for this inconvenience and urge you to monitor the local media and www.irs.gov for information about the status of IRS tax processing systems.
