

Publication 6961-A

Calendar Year Projections of Information and Withholding Documents for the United States and IRS Campuses

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 6961 provides U.S.-level calendar year projections of information and withholding documents. This annual report also includes breakouts by filing methods. Publication 6961-A summarizes some of the significant highlights from Publication 6961.

Projections of the Top Five Nonpaper Information and Withholding Documents To Be Filed, CYs 2025–2033

NOTE: Numbers of documents for CY 2024 are actual filings.
All numbers are based on Table 4 from the full report.
SOURCE: IRS, Statistics of Income Division, Publication 6961, September 2025.

Campus-Level Projections of Information and Withholding Documents To Be Filed on Paper, CY 2024–2033

NOTE: Numbers of documents for CY 2024 are actual filings.
All numbers are based on Tables 5A–5C from the full report.
SOURCE: IRS, Statistics of Income Division, Publication 6961, September 2025.

Significant Highlights From This Update of Publication 6961

- Of the 40 nonpaper information and withholding documents processed for CY 2024, the top 5 accounted for 86.08% of the total nonpaper documents processed.
- The grand total number of information and withholding documents processed in CY 2024 was 4.6 billion. After CY 2024, the grand total is projected to grow at an average annual rate of 4.81%, reaching 7.07 billion documents by CY 2033.
- The grand total number of paper information and withholding documents processed in CY 2024 was 3.96 million; it is projected to decrease to 1.19 million in CY 2025, then decrease to 558 thousand documents by CY 2033.
- The grand total number of information and withholding documents processed electronically was 4.63 billion in CY 2024. It is projected to grow at an average annual rate of 4.82%, reaching 7.07 billion documents by CY 2033.
- The grand total number of paper filings for the Austin campus in CY 2024 was 1.4 million documents. The corresponding number for the Kansas City campus was 1.19 million documents. The Ogden campus processed 1.37 million paper documents in CY 2024.

