Instructions for Borrower

Certain lenders who acquire an interest in property that was security for a loan or who have reason to know that such property has been abandoned must provide you with this statement. You may have reportable income or loss because of such acquisition or abandonment. Gain or loss from an acquisition generally is measured by the difference between your adjusted basis in the property and the amount of your debt cancelled in exchange for the property, or, if greater, the sale proceeds. If you abandoned the property, you may have income from the discharge of indebtedness in the amount of the unpaid balance of your cancelled debt. You may also have a loss from abandonment up to the adjusted basis of the property at the time of abandonment. Losses on acquisitions or abandonments of property held for personal use are not deductible. See Pub. 544, Sales and Other Dispositions of Assets, for information about foreclosures and abandonments.

Property means real property, such as a personal residence, intangible property, or tangible personal property held for investment or used in a trade or business.

If you borrowed money on this property with someone else, each of you should receive this statement.

Box 1.—For a lender's acquisition of property that was security for a loan, the date shown is generally the earlier of the date title was transferred to the lender or the date possession and the burdens and benefits of ownership were transferred to the lender. This may be the date of a foreclosure or execution sale or the date your right of redemption or objection expired. For an abandonment, the date shown is the date on which the lender first knew or had reason to know that the property was abandoned or the date of a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale.

Box 2.—Shows the amount of the debt (principal only) owed to the lender on the loan at the time the interest in the property was acquired by the lender or on the date the lender first knew or had reason to know that the property was abandoned.

Box 3.—Shows the bid price accepted at the foreclosure, execution, or similar sale.

Box 4.—For recourse loans only, if an abandonment or a voluntary conveyance to the lender in lieu of foreclosure occurred, the appraised value of the property is shown. For a foreclosure, execution, or similar sale, the appraised value is not required to be shown.

Box 5.—Shows whether you were personally liable for repayment of the loan at the time the debt was created or, if modified, at the time of the last modification.

Box 6.—Shows the description of the property acquired by the lender or abandoned by you. If "CCC" is shown, the form indicates the amount of any Commodity Credit Corporation loan outstanding when you forfeited your commodity.
