REPORT

THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, D. C., November 1, 1890.

SIR: In compliance with the directions contained in your letter of September 2, 1890, I have the honor to submit the following report covering the operations of the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890; also certain additional information relating to the work performed and collections made during the first three months of the current fiscal year.

The tables contained in the appendix to the bound volume of this report are printed in the following order:

Table A, showing the receipts from each specific source of internal revenue and the amounts refunded in each collection district, State, and Territory of the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30,

Table B, showing the number and value of internal-revenue stamps ordered from the office of the Commissioner, the receipts from the sale of documentary stamps for validating unstamped instruments, and the number and value of stamps for special taxes, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, snuff, distilled spirits, fermented liquors, and oleomargarine issued monthly to collectors during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890.

Table C, showing the percentages of receipts from the several general sources of revenue in each State and Territory of the United States to the aggregate receipts from the same sources, by fiscal years, from July 1, 1863, to June 30, 1890.

Table D, showing the aggregate receipts from all sources in each collection district, State, and Territory of the United States, by fiscal years, from September 1, 1862, to June 30, 1890.

Table E, showing the receipts in the United States from each specific source of revenue now taxable, by fiscal years, from September 1, 1862, to June 30, 1890.

Table F, showing the ratio of receipts in the United States from specific sources of revenue to the aggregate receipts from all sources, by fiscal years, from July 1, 1863, to June 30, 1890.

Table G, showing the returns of distilled spirits, fermented liquors, manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, and cigarettes, under the several acts of legislation and by fiscal years, from September 1, 1862, to June 30, 1890; also statement of the production of distilled spirits and fermented liquors in the several States and Territories, by fiscal years, from July 1, 1877, to June 30, 1890.

Table H, showing the receipts from special taxes in the several States and Territories for the special-tax year ended April 30, 1890.

Table I. Abstract of reports of district attorneys concerning suits and prosecutions under the internal-revenue laws during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890.

Table K. Abstract of seizures of property for violation of internal-revenue laws during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890.

Table L, showing the collections, expenses, and percentage cost of collection in the several collection districts during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890.

COLLECTIONS FOR THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR.

I estimate that the receipts from all sources of internal revenue for the current fiscal year will aggregate $145,000,000.

In making this estimate I have carefully kept in view the reduction made in the tax on tobacco and snuff and the repeal of the law imposing special taxes on dealers in tobacco, manufacturers of tobacco and cigars, and peddlers of tobacco. Upon the basis of the receipts for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, from the various sources of internal revenue affected by the act of October 1, 1890, the following table has been prepared, which presents in detail the estimated decrease to be expected in receipts:

ESTIMATED REDUCTION IN RECEIPTS.

Tobacco, chewing and smoking: Estimated receipts for six months ending December 31, 1890, tax 8 cents per pound. Estimated receipts for six months ending June 30, 1891, tax 6 cents per pound.	$9, 162, 740. 68 6, 872, 055. 51
Total estimated receipts from tobacco for fiscal year ending June 30, 1891 Estimated reduction in receipts from tobacco for fiscal year ending June 30, 1891	16, 034, 796, 19 2, 290, 685, 17
Snuff: Estimated receipts for six months ending December 31, 1890, tax 8 cents per pound. Estimated receipts for six months ending June 30, 1891, tax 6 cents per pound.	368, 865. 64 276, 649. 22
Total estimated receipts from snuff for fiscal year ended June 30, 1891. Estimated reduction in receipts from snuff for fiscal year ending June 30, 1891.	040, 014, 00
Special taxes: Dealers in leaf tobacco Dealers in manufactured tobacco Manufacturers of tobacco Manufacturers of cigars Peddlers of tobacco	11,770.51
Total estimated reduction in special taxes for fiscal year ended June 30, 1801	1,515,481.14
Estimated reduction in receipts from— Tobacco Snuff Special taxes.	92, 216, 41
Total estimated reduction in receipts from tobacco for fiscal year ending June 30, 1891	3, 898, 382. 72

The further reduction of $450,000 may be expected under the operation of those provisions of the act of October 1, 1890, which authorize the fortification of wines with grape brandy free of tax.

It is estimated that about 2,500,000 gallons of wine will be fortified and that about one-fifth of this bulk in grape brandy, say 500,000 gallons, will be required in the process, the tax on which would be $450,000. This would make the total estimated reduction in receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, aggregate $4,348,382.72.

In my last annual report I estimated that the receipts of this Bureau for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, would amount to the sum of $135,000,000.

I am gratified to state that the actual receipts for the fiscal year named were $142,594,696.57, which exceeded my estimate in the sum of $7,594,696.57.

COST OF COLLECTION.

The cost of collection for the past fiscal year, distributed among the different items of appropriation, was approximately as follows:

FF	or salaries and expenses of collectors, including pay of deputy collectors, clerks, etc., and including expenses incident to enforcing the provisions of law taxing eleomargarine or salaries and expenses of revenue agents, surveyors of distilleries, gaugers, store-keepers, and miscellaneous expenses or paper for internal-revenue stamps or expenses of detecting and punishing violations of internal-revenue laws. or salaries of officers, clerks, and employés in the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue.	$1,723,597.15 2,055,894.91 32,930.75 25,000.00
	Total	4 002 440 00

The percentage of the cost of collection is 2.82 per cent.

The expenses for the previous fiscal year were $4,185,728.65, being 3.2 per cent. of the collections.

The sum of $1,950,000 was appropriated by Congress for the salaries and expenses of twenty revenue agents, for surveyors, for fees and expenses of gaugers, for salaries of store-keepers, and for miscellaneous expenses, to be expended during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890. This sum was inadequate, and it became necessary to create a deficiency to maintain this branch of the service, as there was a balance of about $115,000 due these officers at the close of the fiscal year. I was compelled to suspend the payment of their accounts until Congress appropriated the amount required to cover the amount of the deficiency. This was done and these accounts have now been all adjusted.

I earnestly recommend that Congress appropriate a sufficient sum to fully cover these expenses from year to year. The number of store-keepers and gaugers is quite large, aggregating nearly two thousand persons, and an insufficient appropriation is a serious embarrassment to this bureau, as well as to the officers themselves, many of whom receive very small salaries, a portion of which they are compelled to wait months for on account of a lack of funds with which to pay them.

This bureau estimated the amount necessary to pay these officers for the fiscal year above referred to, to be $2,100,000, while the amount actually necessary was $2,055,284.92.

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES.

The act of Congress approved August 7, 1882, making provision for sundry civil expenses for the year ending June 30, 1883, required the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to make a detailed statement of all miscellaneous expenditures in the Bureau of Internal Revenue for which appropriation was made in that act. In accordance with this requirement, I submit the following detailed statement of miscellaneous expenses incurred:

Express charges on public moneys forwarded by collectors and deputy collectors to the depositories. Telegraphing on public business* Locks for use at distilleries. Hydrometers used in gauging spirits. Gauging rods and wine measures Stationery for internal revenue officers The Internal Revenue Record supplied to internal-revenue offices. INCREASE IN EXPENSES FOR NEXT FISCAL YEAR.

In connection with my estimate of expenses for the next fiscal year I beg to call your attention to the fact that paragraph 231 of the act of October 1, 1890, provides as follows:

That on and after July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and until July first, nineteen hundred and five, there shall be paid, from any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, under the provisions of section three thousand six hundred and eighty-nine of the Revised Statutes, to the producer of sugar testing not less than ninety degrees by the polariscope, from beets, sorghum, or sugar-cane grown within the United States, or from maple sap produced within the United States, a bounty of two cents per pound; and upon such sugar testing less than ninety degrees by the polariscope, and not less than eighty degrees, a bounty of one and three-fourth cents per pound, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe.

I am unable at present to make even an approximate estimate of the expenses necessary to carry into effect this provision of the law. It is believed, however, that it will require a very considerable sum of money to enable this Bureau to ascertain upon what sugars this bounty shall be paid and the rate of bounty to which claimants for same may he entitled.

Congress also enacted a law authorizing the makers of sweet wines to use grape brandy, free of tax, for the fortification of their wines, and I have not yet been able to make an estimate of what additional sums will be required to carry into effect the provisions of this law.

The ascertaining of the amount of bounty to be paid to the producers of sugar is an entirely new feature in the internal-revenue system. This Bureau has none of the machinery required to execute the law. It is simply a collection office. It will be necessary to make a chemical analysis in all cases where bounty is claimed.

It is not deemed practical to have samples sent to this office for analysis, and rely upon the tests made here as to the entire production. The law requires that the tests shall be made by the polariscope, and this will require the services of a large number of chemists of considerable experience. Only one chemist and one microscopist are now employed in this Bureau. I am informed that the Department of Agriculture now employs a number of chemists, and that this Department gives much attention to the culture of sugar-producing plants and the methods of manufacturing sugar.

In view of these facts I beg to suggest that Congress be recommended to so amend the law as to require this bounty to be ascertained and paid by the honorable Secretary of Agriculture.

If, however, it shall be decided that this Bureau shall remain charged with the duty of ascertaining and paying the bounty upon sugar, I am compelled to ask the privilege of being allowed to make a supplemental report upon these two subjects, and to ask for such additional appropriations as may be necessary to give these laws full force and effect, and to fully protect the interests of the Government in their execution.

SALARIES.

I have the honor to recommend that Congress appropriate, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892, the sum of $261,990 as salaries for the following officers, clerks, and employés in this Bureau:

I also recommend the appropriation of the sum of $2,500 as salaries for one stamp agent at $1,600 and one counter at $900, the same to be

^{*}The small sum expended under the head of "Telegraphing on public business" arises from the fact that owing to the disagreement between the Post-office Department and the Western Union Telegraph Company as to the rate to be paid on Government telegraphs that company that company as to the rate to be paid on Government telegraphs. ernment telegrams, that company has presented no accounts for such service during the entire fiscal year. The amount expended under this head for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, was $570.48, and when pending claims for such service for the fiscal year just ended are settled these figures will not be increased to any great extent.

re-imbursed by the stamp manufacturers, as provided by the act of August 5, 1882.

GENERAL CONDITION OF THE OFFICE AND THE SERVICE.

At the close of the year ended June 30, 1890, 200 officers, clerks, messengers, and laborers were employed in this Bureau, and the aggregate amount paid during the year for their salaries was $257,687.99.

During the year ended June 30, 1889, 199 persons were employed and the aggregate payment on account of their salaries was $257,030.14.

I take great pleasure in bearing witness to the fidelity, diligence, and accuracy of the officers, clerks, and employés of this Bureau during the past fiscal year. The work of the office is in a most excellent condition and fully up to date, and all business has been promptly and accurately transacted.

The examinations of the offices of collectors, which have been had as often as it was possible with the force of revenue agents at my command, show them to be generally in good condition. It is on account of the promptness, industry, and efficiency of the collectors and their subordinates, to a large degree, that the collections during the past fiscal year were so largely increased, and by their diligence and economy that the expense of collection was reduced.

I regard the year's work as most gratifying indeed.

SCALE OF SALARIES OF COLLECTORS.

The recommendations made for the salaries of collectors are based upon an estimate of their probable collections according to the following scale, with the qualification that if the actual collections should vary from the amounts estimated the salaries will be re-adjusted at the end of the fiscal year:

For collection of—	Salary.	For collection of—	Salary.
$25,000 or less 25,001 to $37,500 37,501 to 50,000 50,001 to 75,000 75,001 to 100,000 100,001 to 125,000 125,001 to 175,000 175,001 to 225,000 225,001 to 275,000 275,001 to 325,000 275,001 to 375,000	2, 125 2, 250 2, 375 2, 500 2, 625 2, 750 2, 875 3, 000 3, 125	700, 001 to 775, 000	3, 62 3, 75 3, 87 4, 00 4, 12 4, 25

OFFICIAL FORCE.

The force connected with this Bureau during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1890, in the various districts throughout the United States, as reorganized under the executive order of May 21, 1887, was sixty-three collectors, who received per annum salaries as follows:

Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.
33 1 1 1 1 4	$4,500 4,250 4,125 4,000 2,750	1 2 2 2 1 1 5	$3, 625 3, 500 3, 375 3, 125 3, 000	3	$2,875 2,750 2,625

There were also employed nine hundred and sixty-two deputy collectors, who received per annum salaries as follows:

Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.
22 11	$2,000 1,900 1,800 1,750 1,760 1,550 1,550 1,450 1,400 1,350 1,350 1,300	169° 127 1 1 1 135 135 14 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	$1, 200 1, 100 1, 050 1, 000 950 900 850 800 750 700 600 500	1	$48 42 40 36 30 25 24 20 15

There were also employed in the offices of the different collectors one hundred and eighty-five clerks, who received per annum salaries as follows:

Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.
1	$1,800 1,600 1,500 1,400 1,300 1,250 1,200	8	$1,150 1,100 1,000 900 800 750 720	9	$700 650 600 500 400

Also twenty-seven porters, messengers, or janitors who received per annum salaries, as follows:

Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.	Number.	Salary.
6	$600 500 480 450 400	1 2 3 2 2 1	$420 360 300 200 150	1	$120 100 73

STORE-KEEPERS, GAUGERS, ETC.

There were also employed 685 gaugers, who received fees not to exceed $5 per day; 620 store-keepers and 999 store-keepers and gaugers, whose pay did not exceed $4 per diem, and 4 distillery surveyors. All the foregoing officers are paid only when actually employed.

Store-keepers are assigned to those distilleries only which have a surveyed daily capacity of 100 bushels or more, and are paid such compensation as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, not to exceed $4 per day.

The pay of store-keepers and gaugers assigned to distilleries whose registered daily capacity is 20 bushels or less is fixed by law at $2 per diem. The pay of those assigned to larger distilleries has been graded according to the following scale:

Compensation for store-keepers and gaugers assigned to distilleries having a surveyed daily capacity exceeding 20 bushels and not exceeding 40 bushels, $3 per day; compensation of those assigned to distilleries having a surveyed daily capacity exceeding 40 bushels and not exceeding 60 bushels, $3.50 per day; compensation of those assigned to distilleries having a surveyed daily capacity exceeding 60 bushels, $4 per day.

REVENUE AGENTS' DIVISION.

Twenty revenue agents have been employed during the last fiscal year, one as chief of division in this office, ten in charge of territorial divisions, three in the examination of the offices and accounts of collectors, and six in assisting agents in charge of divisions, and on special duty.

EXPENSES OF REVENUE AGENTS.

There have been expended from the appropriation for salaries and expenses of revenue agents during the year the following amounts:

Aggregate salary of agents. Aggregate amount of traveling expenses. Stationery furnished agents. Transportation over Pacific railroads.	31, 522, 05
Total	75, 551, 33

WORK OF REVENUE AGENTS.

One thousand three hundred and seven violations of internal-revenue law have been reported by revenue agents during the year; six hundred and fifty persons have been arrested on their information; property to the value of $699,084.10 has been reported by them for seizure, and $110,326.72 for assessment for unpaid taxes and penalties. One hundred and thirty-one examinations of the accounts of collectors have been made and the condition of the offices reported upon by agents, and one hundred and five transfers of collectors' offices under new appointment have been made under their supervision.

ILLICIT STILLS SEIZED.

INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF REVENUE AGENTS.

I respectfully renew the recommendations in my last annual report for an increase of internal-revenue agents.

In addition to the necessities then existing for an increased number of agents, the recent legislation providing for a bounty on domestic sugar will largely extend the duties of agents and increase their work. I have been able during the past year to assign but three agents to the examination of collectors' offices. To make the examinations as frequently as, in my opinion, is necessary, an additional agent should be assigned to that duty.

I also renew my recommendations in my last report, for the reasons therein stated, that the actual and necessary traveling expenses, including hotel and board bills, of agents be paid instead of the per diem allowance now provided for.

MANUFACTURE OF STAMP PAPER.

By employing the customary means of advertising, sealed proposals were solicited for furnishing the bureau with paper, of the requisite quality and finish, to be used in printing the United States internalrevenue stamps for the fiscal year (ending June 30, 1891). In response three bids were received, and these were opened and considered at 12 o'clock m., June 20, 1890. After due deliberation, the committee recommended, June 21, 1890, that the contract be awarded to the Fairchild Paper Company, of Boston, Mass., at the rate of 6.3 cents per pound, the price given covering the cost of manufacturing the paper and cost of transportation from place of manufacture to the Treasury Department. The recommendation of the committee was approved, and in accordance therewith a contract was executed with the Fairchild Paper Company, July 3, 1890, under the terms of which an aggregate of 450,000 pounds, more or less, was called for, and an actual aggregate of 662,7193 pounds has been ordered. The number of pounds estimated for the current year is in excess of that required last year by 212,0253 pounds, the increase being rendered necessary by the increased demand for stamps.

STAMP PRODUCTION.

As provided by law all internal-revenue stamps, with the single exception of those imprinted on tin-foil wrappers for certain manufactures of tobacco, are furnished by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The stamps on tin-foil are supplied by Mr. John J. Crooke, of New York, under contract, without cost to the Government, the contractor being recompensed by the tobacco manufacturers. The contractor is obliged by the terms of his contract to re-imburse the Government in full for the amount paid as salaries to one United States stamp agent and one counter, aggregating $2,500 per annum.

CLAIMS FOR REDEMPTION BARRED BY STATUTE.

One hundred and fifty applications for redemption of check and proprietary stamps were received during the year, the amounts claimed ranging from 20 cents to $60. The aggregate value can not be given, since in many cases the amount of the claim was not stated. The redemption of this class of stamps is barred by the statute, and claimants were in each case so notified by letter. The seventy-eight cases noted in my last report, some being made up without return of stamps and others of stamps with no claims accompanying, are still undisposed of.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF INTERNAL-REVENUE STAMPS IN VAULT.

On Thursday, December 26, 1889, at 9 o'clock a. m., the vaults of the stamp division were surrendered to a committee appointed by the honorable Secretary of the Treasury, and this committee, with the aid of a special detail of sixty clerks, counters, and laborers, began an official count of the internal-revenue stamps then on hand. The count was completed at noon on Monday, January 3, 1890. Statements showing by classes and denominations the balances of stamps on hand March 26, 1889 (date of last recount), the receipts and deliveries since that date, and the balances in the vaults on the morning of December 26, 1889, were furnished by the Division of Loans and Currency (Secretary's office) and by the Office of Internal Revenue, and a careful count of stamps by sheets, and verification of those bound in books by a count of the books and examination of the serial numbers, showed that they agree in every respect with the accounts, and that every stamp charged to the Commissioner was properly accounted for.

THE TABULAR STATEMENTS.

In the tables annexed will be found statements showing the manner in which the manufacturing is distributed through the different States, the number of persons and firms engaged in each of the two branches of manufacturing, the quantity of different kinds of material used, and the quantity and kind of products manufactured. These tables are compiled from the reports received from collectors of internal revenue of the transactions of manufacturers in their several districts for the calendar year ended December 31, 1889, a period of time differing from the fiscal year, which will account for any apparent discrepancies between them and the previous part of the report relating to tobacco.

There were in New York City thirty persons who paid special taxes and kept books as tobacco manufacturers solely for the purpose of lawfully dealing in the refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and waste made by cigar manufacturers. They sort, sieve, and pack this material and export most of it to foreign countries. The rest they sell in bulk, under permits, to other manufacturers, who manipulate it and pack and sell their product as smoking tobacco. During the year 1889 they purchased 1,362,812 pounds of such material and exported and sold 1,262,695 pounds. These purchases and sales are not included in the tabular statement, because they did not pack and sell any of this tobacco for use and consumption.

DIRECT TAX.

A few claims for surplus proceeds of the sale of lands under the direct-tax laws have been allowed during the past year, amounting to the sum of $2,351.26.

Of the amount appropriated by the act of March 3, 1883, for the payment of these claims there remained at the commencement of this fiscal year the sum of $129,167.04 available.

Under the act of March 3, 1887, providing for the redemption of the school-farm lands held by the United States in Beaufort County, S. C., and the act of March 2, 1889, extending the time allowed for redemption till March 2, 1890, 3,119.11 acres have been redeemed, included in twenty-seven releases. Nearly all these lands have now been redeemed. The act of September 25, 1890, extended the time allowed for redemption till September 25, 1892.

A bill (S. 172) to credit and pay to the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia all moneys collected under the direct-tax levied by the act of Congress approved August 5, 1861, and remitting all moneys still due, passed the Senate January 28, 1890, and is now pending in the House of Representatives.

ABATEMENT CLAIMS.

On the 1st of July, 1889, there were pending 188 claims for abatement of internal revenue taxes assessed, amounting to $34,321.27, and during the year 2,671 claims, amounting to $687,384.21, were presented.

Of these, 2,047 claims, amounting to $516,244.70, have been allowed, and 738 claims, amounting to $191,786.46 have been rejected or returned for amendment.

This left 74 claims, amounting to $13,674.32, still pending on the 30th of June, 1890.

Since that date and up to the 1st of October 779 claims, amounting to $274,779.16, have been filed; 539 claims, amounting to $238,632.31 have been allowed, and 189 claims, amounting to $13,216.19, have been rejected or returned for amendment, and on the 1st day of October. 1890, 125 claims, amounting to $36,604.98, were pending.

REFUNDING CLAIMS.

On the 1st of July, 1889, there were pending 201 claims for the refunding of internal-revenue taxes collected, amounting to $233,586.75, and during the year 232 claims, amounting to $119,804.34, were presented, and 4 rejected claims, amounting to $665.51, were reconsidered.

Of these, 110 claims, amounting to $46,639.17, were allowed during the year, and 245 claims, amounting to $184,310.04, were rejected or returned for amendment. This left 82 claims, amounting to $123,107.39, still pending on the 30th of June, 1890. Since that date, and up to the 1st of October, 77 claims, amounting to $87,455.12, have been received. Of these, 57 claims, amounting to $13,877.68, have been allowed, and 34 claims, amounting to $4,896.44, have been rejected or returned for amendment, and on the 1st day of October, 1890, 68 claims, amounting to $191,788.39, were pending.

INTERNAL-REVENUE LEGISLATION.

The following bills relative to internal revenue passed both Houses of Congress during the past session and became laws:

An act to provide for the exportation of fermented liquor in bond without payment of internal-revenue tax, approved June 18, 1890.

An act to amend section 3354 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, approved June 18, 1890. This act provides for the removal of fermented liquors from a brewery by way of a pipe-line or other conduit to another building or place for the sole purpose of bottling the same, under regulations to be prescribed, the tax to be paid by the cancellation or defacement by the collector of the district, or by his deputy, in the presence of the brewer, of the number of stamps denoting the tax on the fermented liquor thus removed.

The act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports, and for other purposes (H. R. 9416), made many important changes in the internal-revenue law.

The following bill passed the House and is still pending in the Senate:

H. R. 11568. An act defining "lard," also imposing a tax upon and regulating the manufacture and sale, importation and exportation, of compound lard.

DECISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

The following decisions in relation to internal revenue were rendered in the Supreme Court during the last term:

UNITED STATES vs. STOWELL (30 Int. Rev. Rec., 30; 133 U. S. 1).

This was an information filed under sections 3258 and 3305, Revised Statutes and section 16 of the act of February 8, 1875, for the forfeiture of certain property connected with premises used for illicit distilling. Upon certain agreed facts the district court of Massachusetts ruled that the information could not be maintained. Upon the affirmance of the circuit court of the judgment of the district court writ of error was sued out to the United States Supreme Court.

Held: Statutes to prevent frauds upon the revenue, although they impose penalties or forfeitures, are not to be construed, like penal laws generally, strictly in favor of the defendant; but they are to be fairly and reasonably construed so as to carry out the intention of the legislature.

The forfeiture imposed by the act of February 8, 1875 (c. 36, sec. 16), for carrying on the business of a distiller without having given bond, or with intent to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled, includes all personal property owned by other persons, knowingly and voluntarily permitted by them to remain on any part of the premises, and actually used either in the unlawful business or in any other business openly carried on there; but in the lot of land on which the distillery is situated only the right, title, and interest of the distiller, and of persons who have consented to the carrying on of the business of a distiller thereon, is forfeited. And there is a like forfeiture of personal property under Revised Statutes, section 3258, for setting up an unregistered still; and of personal property and interests in real estate under section 3305 for omitting to keep books as required by law.

The forfeiture imposed by the act of February 8, 1875 (c. 36, sec. 16), and by Revised Statutes, sections 3258, 3305, takes effect from the time of the commission of the offense, both as to the right, title, and interest in the land and as to personal property then upon the land. When the owner of land upon which an illicit distillery has been set up and carried on with his consent has previously made a mortgage thereof to one who does not permit or connive at the illicit distilling, and the mortgagor, upon a subsequent breach of condition of the mortgage, makes a quitclaim deed to the mortgagee, the forfeiture of the land, as well as of trade fixtures annexed to it for a lawful purpose before the setting up of the still, is of the equity of redemption only

This was an action brought against the collector by a person who was held to be a banker under the internal-revenue laws, to recover certain sums of money paid in 1881, 1882, and 1883 on capital employed in his business.

RICHMOND vs. BLAKE, COLLECTOR-Continued. The plaintiff had a place of business, indicated by a sign over the door, where his mail matter was received, and where he could be met by his clients, and where the latter could deliver to him stocks to be sold by him or under his supervision, and he was engaged there in the business of buying and selling stocks for his customers, in which business he regularly employed capital, by the use of which interest was earned upon moneys advanced by him for

Held: That he was a banker within the meaning of that term as used in Revised Statutes, section 3407, and subject to taxation as such under the provisions

As the tax in question has been repealed, the decision has no bearing upon the present administration of the law, but it sustained the ruling of this office, which had been made on the question when the law was in force.

HOWARD MANSFIELD, PLAINTIFF IN ERROR, vs. THE EXCELSIOR REFINERY COM-PANY. In error to the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois (36 Int. Rev. Rec., 165; 135 U. S., 326).

Held: A sale by a collector of internal revenue of distillery property, under distraint, for taxes, transfers to the purchaser only the right, title, and interest therein of the delinquent.

In case the distiller is not the owner in fee, the consent of the owner or person having a lien thereon, under section 3262, Revised Statutes, that the lien of the United States for taxes and penalties shall have priority, does not authorize the Government to seize and sell, by summary sale, under section 3197, the interest of the owner of the fee, or destroy the lien of an incumbrancer, without giving either an opportunity to be heard.

The Government, to enforce its prior lien, and make such sale as will convey the title in fee to the purchaser, should institute a suit in equity, as provided in section 3207, Revised Statutes, and make all persons having liens upon or claiming any interest in the premises parties to the suit.

JOHN D. SANBORN, PLAINTIFF IN ERROR, vs. THE UNITED STATES. The United States, plaintiff in error, vs. John D. Sanborn. In error to the circuit court of the United States for the district of Massachusetts. (36 Int. Rev. Rec., 142; 135 U.

This was an action brought by the United States against John D. Sanborn for $7,334 and interest from August 16, 1873.

John D. Sanborn was paid $7,334 for services claimed to have been rendered in collecting internal-revenue taxes from the estate of General John E. Wool. under a contract made with the Secretary of the Treasury, as authorized by the act of Congress of May 8, 1872 (17 Stat., 69), by which he was to assist the proper officers of the Government in discovering and collecting moneys due to the United States which had been withheld, for which services he was to receive a sum equal to 50 per cent. of the amount collected.

Sanborn having performed no services entitling him to receive that sum, said amount, paid under a misapprehension, should be returned to the United Interest should be allowed only from the commencement of the suit, as there appeared to be delay on the part of the Government in the prosecution of the When any clerk or officer of the United States is sent away from his place of business as a witness for the Government (sec. 850, Rev. Stat.) his necessary expenses in going, returning, and attendance on court are to be treated as a part of the costs in the suit to be charged against the losing party.

DECISION IN THE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA, APRIL, 1890.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA vs. S. KIRKPATRICK, A. C. PATTERSON, L. M. CATES, A. T. Dodson, and W. T. Dickson. (36 Int. Rev. Rec., 133; 42 Fed. Rep., 689.)

8. Kirkpatrick was an internal-revenue agent, and A. C. Patterson a deputy collector of internal revenue, who, with the other defendants, members of the posse, were searching for illicit distilleries about 8 miles from Hillsborough, N. C.

While engaged in the performance of their official duties and acting under the authority of the internal-revenue laws they were fired upon by a person, who was thereupon shot and killed by one of the party as he was attempting to fire a second time.

The parties were arrested by the State authorities on the charge of murder, but before indictment was found the case was removed to the United States circuit court under the provisions of section 643, Revised Statutes.

After such removal the parties were indicted in the State court.

The prisoners, on writ issued by the United States circuit court, were taken in custody by the United States marshal, and the case was tried in the United States court.

Held: That the statute authorizing the removal of the case to the United States circuit court is constitutional, and that after the removal and during the pendency of the case in the circuit court further proceedings in the State court were null and void.

As the evidence on the trial showed that the prisoners were acting in the line of their official duty, they were discharged.

INTERNAL-REVENUE CASES PENDING BEFORE THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT. OCTOBER TERM, 1890.

No. 64, A. S. SOLOMONS vs. THE UNITED STATES.

This is a suit by assignee of patent for revenue stamps invented while inventor was in employ of the Government to recover for their use. Appeal from the Court of Claims.

No. 90. CENTRAL NATIONAL BANK vs. THE UNITED STATES. From United States circuit court, southern district of New York.

This suit is for a tax of 5 per cent, upon certain dividends declared, said tax being imposed by laws now repealed.

No. 112. THE UNITED STATES vs. ALFRED BRIGGS, coll'r 4th California. Sept. 24, 1887. Suit for $20,852.45 on collector's bond. From circuit court of California. Suit brought to recover certain moneys collected from the Central Pacific and California Pacific R. R. Co's and not covered into the Treasury,

No. 113. THE UNITED STATES vs. CONNOR. Appeal from Court of Claims.

Suit to recover share, as informer, of amount recovered from fraudulent distiller.

No. 130. THE CHICAGO DISTILLING COMPANY vs. R. STONE, COLLECTOR.

Northern Illinois United States circuit court. October 3, 1887.

This suit is a test one brought for the express purpose of obtaining a judicial decision as to the mode of arriving at the capacity of a distillery, within the meaning of the word as employed in section 3301, R. S., as amended.

No. 164. THE UNITED STATES US. BOSTON AND ALBANY RAILROAD COMPANY. October 10, 1887.

Claim for taxes under laws now repealed. Amount involved, $275,687.45.

No. 165. JOHN B. THOMPSON et al. vs. THE UNITED STATES. From district of Kentucky, September 27, 1888.

Tax on deficiency, spirits exported.

April 8, 1885, John B. Thompson gave a bond in the sum of $41,000 to export a lot of whisky, then in warehouse, to Melbourne, Australia, via Newport News. It was gauged and stamped for export. On October 1, he gave a new bond to export to Bremen via New York. The whisky was re-gauged and found to be 1,065 gallons short. For the tax on this, $958, the Government brought suit. Thompson admitted the deficiency, but said it was caused by evaporation. The court held that all loss by evaporation was covered by an allowance of seven and a half gallons a barrel, already made. The defense relied chiefly on its claim that the whisky was in course of export, and a tax on exports is unconstitutional.

The court held that only such whisky was free from tax as was withdrawn from bond in the original packages and actually exported. Thompson appealed.

No. 499. The United States vs. Augustus S. Witten et al. October 4,1888. Appeal from a decision in U. S. circuit court, western district of Virginia (Judge Paul presiding), that the Government cannot collect taxes on spirits lost in warehouse through its negligence.

No. 500. SAME.

No. 705. THE UNITED STATES vs. GEORGE R. EATON, district of Massachusetts, Nov.

Eaton, a wholesale dealer in oleomargarine, was charged with failure to make returns and keep books. This requirement was made by the regulations. The question involved is whether the Commissioner, under section 20, act of August 2, 1886, had authority to make such regulations which have the force

Under the act recently passed this requirement is now made by law, so that this case is unimportant.

No. 714. MARTHA P. STOTESBURY ET AL., THOMAS P. STOTESBURY r. THE UNITED STATES. December 20, 1888. Appeal from the Court of Claims.

This was a claim for refund of $67,335.85 assessed and collected during the years 1865-'68 from Harris & Stotesbury as "sugar refiners." The claim was allowed by Commissioner Pleasonton July 26, 1871, referred back to the office by the Secretary of the Treasury, and disallowed by Commissi ner Donglass November 13, 1871. Held by the Court of Claims that the action of Commissioner Pleasonton in transmitting the claim to the Secretary of the Treasury was not a final award upon which action can be maintained in the Court of Claims.

No. 1014. THE UNITED STATES vs. CHARLES A. SNYDER AND THE INTERNATIONAL COT-TON PRESS COMPANY. Appeal from the decision of the United States circuit court, district of Louisiana.

April 15, 1885, a bill in equity was filed in the United States circuit court against Charles A. Snyder and The International Cotton Press Company to enforce the lien claimed by the Government on certain real estate for internal-revenue taxes, amounting to $3,469.80, assessed November 17, 1879 (October, 1879, nue taxes, amounting to $3,469.80, assessed November 17, 1879 (October, 1879, list). The International Cotton Press Company purchased the real estate from Snyder February 5, 1881, and in its answer denied the validity of the assessment, and claimed the property by purchase without notice of lien. The court made a decree (December 3, 1888) dismissing the bill as to The International Cotton Press Company, and awarding judgment against Charles A. Snyder for $3,469.30, with $173.49 added as penalty and 1 per cent. per month on $3,469.30 from November 20, 1879, and costs.

The court held that the assessment was regularly and lawfully made, but that the United States could not enforce its lien on the property because the as-the United States could not enforce its lien on the property because the assessment had not been filed and inscribed in the mortgage office of the parish of New Orleans, according to the laws of the State.

The question involved is whether a State can limit the operation of a lien which the United States has created for its own protection or can prescribe conditions upon which such a lien may be exercised or may exist.

No. 938. PRESIDENT MANHATTAN COMPANY vs. M. B. BLAKE, COLLECTOR. Appeal from the United States circuit court, southern district of New York. Suit for refund of taxes on deposits under law now repealed.

It was held by the circuit court that the bank was liable for a tax of $31,021.25, being 1-20 of one per cent, upon moneys deposited in the bank which had been transmitted to it by the treasurer of the State of New York, for payment by it of the interest and principal of the debt of the State. The plaint-iff relied upon Collector v. Day, 11 Wall., 113. The defendant cited Metropolitan Bank v. Lloyd, 90 N. Y., 531; Bank of Republic v. Millard, 10 Wall., 155; Savings Bank v. Collector, 3 Wall., 495.

No. -. JOHN STEWART vs. BENJAMIN H. BARNES, EXECUTOR OF WM. H. BARNES, COLLECTOR. From United States circuit court, eastern district of Pennsyl-

This is a suit to recover $250.40, with interest from June 26, 1888, alleged to have been illegally collected as tax on spirits subject to a credit of $241.78 paid plaintiff August 17, 1886.

The spirits had been manufactured and placed in bond prior to July 20, 1868. The tax was collected on fractions of gallons counted as whole gallons, and on spirits lost by evaporation or leakage while in warehouse.

The case was tried April 4, 1889, and a verdict rendered for the defendant.

There are forty-three other similar suits pending in the United States circuit courts against this defendant and ex-collectors Leeds and Abel.

No. 1372. Andrew Wehrle, Sr., Claimant of distilling apparatus, vs. The United States. Writ of error from the United States circuit court for the northern district of Ohio.

Mr. Wehrle obtained letters patent for a process of treating wines, and built an apparatus, like that illustrated in his patent, which was seized for forfeiture by the collector of internal revenue.

The question involved is whether a person using this apparatus is a distiller as defined by section 3247, R. S., and the product liable to taxation under section 3254, R. S. Writ of error dismissed. Judgment of circuit court stands, holding the apparatus to be a still and the product liable to tax as distilled

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF DISTILLERIES REGISTERED AND OPER-ATED.

The whole number of grain distilleries registered during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, was 1,536, of which number 1,397 were oper-

The numbers registered and operated during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, were 1,440 and 1,267, respectively; showing an increase during the last fiscal year of 96 in the number registered and of 130 in the number operated.

The total increase in the number registered, and much the larger portion of the increased number operated, occurred in the class of distilleries having the smaller capacities for the production of spirits; there having been an increase of 96 in the number of distilleries of this class registered, and an increase of 107 in the number operated.

In the class of larger distilleries there was no change in the number registered, but an increase of 23 in the number operated.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, there were registered 1.212 distilleries of the smaller class, varying in daily grain capacity from not over five bushels to not over sixty bushels each; and of this number 1,063, or nearly 88 per cent., were operated.

Of the larger distilleries, having daily grain capacities varying from sixty bushels to several thousand bushels each, 228 were registered, and 204, or over 89 per cent., were operated.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, of the smaller distilleries 1,308 were registered, and 1,170, or a little over 89 per cent., were operated.

Of the larger distilleries 228 were registered, and 227, or 99½ per cent.

were operated.

There were 10 rum distilleries registered and 10 operated; the same number reported for the previous fiscal year.

There were 4,884 fruit distilleries registered and 4,804 operated; an increase of 1,758 in the number registered, and of 1,732 in the number operated during the fiscal year.

The total number of grain, molasses, and fruit distilleries registered and operated during the year is 6,430 and 6,211 respectively.

There was an increase of 1,854 in the number of all kinds of distilleries registered and an increase of 1,862 in the number of all kinds operated during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, as compared with the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889.

Note.—The term "taxable gallon," as used in these tables, signifies the gallon subject to tax at 90 cents. In the case of whisky, rum, and gin, this gallon is about equal by measure to the wine gallon of 231 cubic inches, which is the United States standard in measuring liquids. This is also true of most distilled spirits used as beverages, and is owing to the fact that such spirits are mixtures of alcohol and water of about equal parts by volume, a wine gallon of such a mixture being substantially defined by the law to be the taxable gallon. If the liquor is more than half such the taxable gallon does not fill the wine-gallon measure, and if the liquor is all pure alcohol, the taxable gallon fills the measure just half full. For an exact definition of the gallon on which the tax is collected, see sections 3249 and 3251, Revised Statutes, as amended.

INCREASED WITHDRAWAL OF TAX-PAID SPIRITS.

The quantity of spirits (83,479,837 gallons) withdrawn tax-paid, from distillery warehouses during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, is more than the quantity (75,901,735 gallons) withdrawn from distillery warehouses during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, by 7,578,102 gallons, the increase being distributed among the different kinds known to the trade as follows:

Increase in withdrawals of—		Gallons. 265, 417
Rye whisky		491,750 203,147 6,194,312
Miscellaneous		0.0,102
Total increase		8, 133 407
Decrease in withdrawals of-	Gallons. 46, 924
Bourbon whisky	57, 675
High wines	450,700
Total decrease		555, 305
Net increase		7, 578, 102

If the quantity, 1,021,096 gallons (as stated by the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics), of exported domestic spirits re-imported during the year upon payment of a customs duty equal to the internal revenue tax be added, the quantity virtually withdrawn from distillery warehouses during the year ended June 30, 1890, is found to be 84,500,933 gallons, or 6,983,882 gallons more than during the year 1889, including the 1,615,316 gallons re-imported and tax-paid during that year.

WITHDRAWAL OF PRODUCTS BY MONTHS.

DISTILLED SPIRITS ALLOWED FOR LOSS BY LEAKAGE OR EVAPORATION IN WAREHOUSE.

The quantity of spirits (2,932,249 gallons) reported in the preceding table as lost by leakage or evaporation in warehouse, is that portion of actual leakage in warehouse from packages withdrawn during the year which has been allowed in accordance with the provisions of section 17 of the act of May 28, 1880.

The following statement shows the quantity of spirits, as per original gauge, withdrawn from warehouse for all purposes during the stated period, and the amount and percentage of leakage allowed thereon under the provisions of the act named:

Year.	Total quantity	Leakage	Percentage of

BALANCE IN WAREHOUSE AT CLOSE OF THIS AND PREVIOUS FISCAL YEARS.

The quantity, 89,721,053 gallons, remaining in warehouses June 30, 1890, is the largest quantity so held at the close of any fiscal year since 1882, the quantity in warehouses June 30, 1882, being 89,962,645 gallons. It is evident, however, that at the rate of increase prevailing during the months of July, August, and September, 1890, the balance in warehouse June 30, 1891, is likely to be much greater than in 1882, and therefore than in any other year, the increased balance of October 1, 1889, over that of October 1, 1888, being 8,797,072 gallons, while the increased balance held October 1, 1890, over that of October 1, 1889, is 23,754,973 gallons.

It is also noted that while this largely increased balance is due to the increased production of Bourbon whisky there has been an actual falling off in the quantity of this kind of spirits withdrawn from bonded warehouses upon payment of tax.

SPIRITS IN THE HANDS OF WHOLESALE DEALERS AND RECTIFIERS.

[Compiled from reports of collectors based upon statements made to them by dealers and rectifiers.]

It appears from the following table (on pages 162 and 163) that the quantity of spirits, tax or duty paid, held by wholesale liquor dealers and rectifiers October 1, 1890, was 16,383,195 gallons, the quantity so held October 1, 1889, being 15,255,882 gallons. The quantity of domestic and foreign spirits, respectively, and the aggregate held October 1, each year from 1878 to 1890, both inclusive, are as follows:

OLEOMARGARINE.

The following statements, showing operations under the act of August 2, 1886, defining butter and imposing a tax-upon and regulating the manufacture, sale, importation, and exportation of oleomargarine, comprise-

First. A summary of operations at oleomargarine manufactories during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890; also a summary of operations during the past two fiscal years, and by months covering the period from November 1, 1886, to June 30, 1890; also a statement of the quantity of oleomargarine in the United States June 30, 1890.

Second. A statement of the receipts from all classes of taxes imposed by the oleomargarine law for the year ending June 30, 1890.

Third. A statement, by States and Territories and in the aggregate, of all persons who paid taxes as manufacturers of and dealers in oleomargarine; also in aggregate of all persons who paid oleomargarine special taxes for the year ending May 1, 1889.

Fourth. A statement, by districts, of the number of retail dealers in oleomargarine doing business in April, 1889, and April, 1890, respect-

Fifth. A statement as to the location of oleomargarine manufactories and of wholesale dealers in oleomargarine in April, 1889, and April, 1890, respectively.

Sixth. A statement showing the number of examinations made by collectors and deputy collectors with internal-revenue microscopes during the year. Seventh. A brief summary of the laws of the several States and Territories relative to oleomargarine. Respecting the laws of Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Texas, and Washington, no information has been received since November, 1888.

It appears from the subjoined tables that the average monthly production of oleomargarine under the operations of the law has been as follows:

It also appears that the average monthly quantity withdrawn from factories on payment of the tax was as follows:

The average quantity withdrawn monthly for exportation during the same time is shown to have been as follows:

	T Comment
During the eight months ended June 30, 1887	. 90,566

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890

These figures show an increase from year to year in the production both for consumption at home and abroad, from November 1, 1886, the date the law went into effect, until June 30, 1889, and a decrease during the year ended June 30, 1890.

263, 398

The decreased production was chiefly owing to the open pasturage during the past winter and consequent abundant supply of natural butter at very low prices, and secondarily to the more rigid enforcement of certain State laws prohibiting the manufacture of oleomargarine, and of other State laws restrictive in character, but not actually prohibitory. A brief summary of these laws, as noted above, will be found in the seventh statement.

In the fiscal years 1887 and 1888 the largest production month was March, and in the fiscal year 1889, December; while the greatest production during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, occurred in October, the quantity produced during these months being as follows:

	Pounds.
In March, 1887	3, 568, 254
In March, 1888	3, 940, 727
In December, 1888
In October, 1889	4,072,333

The months in which the production fell below 2,000,000 pounds were May, June, and July, 1887, June, 1889, and May, June, July, and August, 1890, the production for July, 1887, being the smallest, viz, 1,208,638 pounds.

There was a decrease in the number of persons engaged in the sale of oleomargarine during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, as well as a decrease in the production of the article.

The number of persons in business during April, 1887, 1888, 1889, and 1890 was as follows:

The following table shows the quantity of oleomargarine, in pounds, at 2 cents tax, produced at manufactories during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, the quantity withdrawn therefrom during the year, and the stock of oleomargarine remaining in factories June 30, 1890.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL LAWS RELATING TO OLEOMARGARINE.

Alabama.—An act approved February 28, 1887, relative to adulteration of food, prohibits the sale of oleomargarine under any but its true name branded upon the package. In addition, each purchaser at the time of purchase must be informed of the nature of the article.

Arizona.—There are no statutory provisions in force relative to oleomargarine.

Arkansas.—This State has had no legislation relative to oleomarga-rine, butterine, or other similar substances.

California.—By an act approved March 2, 1881, it is prohibited to manufacture or sell any article having the semblance of natural butter, and which is not the exclusive product of the dairy, except under its true and appropriate name, and unless each roll or package of such substance has the name distinctly painted, branded, or stamped thereon.

Colorado.—An act approved April 6, 1885, provides that no person shall manufacture, import, or bring into the State, or sell oleomargarine, butterine, suine, or any other substance made in imitation of or having the semblance of butter, which substance is not made wholly from pure cream or milk, unless he shall first obtain a license for such purpose from the county, town, or city within which such manufacture or sale shall be carried on.

The license fee to manufacture is $1,000 per annum; to sell, $500 per annum. Every package, wrapper, or vessel containing a butter substitute must be branded with the appropriate name in four conspicuous places. Hotels, restaurants, boarding-houses, etc., serving butter substitutes must keep four notices to that effect conspicuously posted in the dining-rooms of their establishments.

Connecticut.—The law of this State prescribes that no imitation butter shall be sold unless there is a plain sign at the outer main entrance to the establishment bearing the words "sold here," preceded by the name of the imitation article. All oleomargarine must be kept in packages appropriately marked with the name of contents, and the seller must orally inform each buyer that the substance is not butter, and must give the buyer the name of the imitation article. Any article resembling butter and not made wholly from the milk of cows is defined to be imitation butter.

Delaware.—An act of February 10, 1879, as amended March 21, 1883, prohibits the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine unless the words "artificial butter" be conspicuously placed upon the tub, box, table, counter, bench, or other vessel or receptacle holding the substance.

Florida.—An act approved February 17, 1881, makes it a misdemeanor to knowingly or willingly sell spurious preparations as butter, and imposes penalties upon hotel and boarding-house keepers who knowingly or wilfully, without giving notice to guests at the table, supply spurious butter for the use of such guests.

Georgia.—Under section 1 of an act approved September 26, 1883, it is prohibited to willfully or knowingly sell any adulterated article of food unless the package or vessel containing the same has attached thereto a true and correct analysis of the article, and notice is given the purchaser, at the time of sale, that the article is adulterated.

Idaho.—Section 6917 of the revised statutes of Idaho, 1887, provides as follows, and is all the law relative to oleomargarine:

Every person who sells, or keeps for sale, or offers for sale, or otherwise disposes of oleomargarine, butterine, mixture imitating butter, or adulterated butter under the name of or under the pretense that the same is butter, or keeps for sale or manufacture oleomargarine, butterine, mixture imitating butter, or adulterated butter, without branding the same or the package in which it is contained, on the outside thereof, with the word "oleomargarine," "butterine," or "adulterated butter," is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Illinois.—An act approved June 1, 1881, prohibits the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, except under its true name, stamped on each roll, parcel, or vessel containing the substance, or unless the purchaser is fully informed by the seller of the true name and ingredients of the article.

Section 4 of the act requires that the percentage in which oleomargarine, suine, butterine, etc., is mixed with butter be stated upon each package of such compound; the seller must also likewise inform the purchaser.

Indiana.—An act of March 3, 1883, requires that imitation butter shall be branded "oleomargarine."

Iowa.—An act approved March 27, 1886, requires all manufacturers of imitation butter to clearly and durably brand each tub, firkin, box, or other package, with the true name of contents. The law also provides penalties for selling imitation butter not so marked, and for failure to distinctly notify the purchaser of the nature of the substance and to deliver to him a written statement referring to and giving the true name of the substance sold. In hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants and other places of public entertainment where imitation butter is served, patrons must be notified of the fact by means of a printed placard.

Kansas.—By an act approved March 2, 1889, entitled an act to provide against the adulteration of foods and drugs, it is prohibited to manufacture or sell oleomargarine, butterine, etc., under a false name; these mixtures must be distinctly labeled as such.

Kentucky.—This State has had no legislation relative to oleomarga-

Louisiana.—An act approved July 8, 1886, prohibits the sale, handling, or giving away of olemargarine, butterine, etc., except when so labeled as unmistakably to indicate the true composition thereof.

Maine.—An act approved March 3, 1885, to amend chapter 128 of the Revised Statutes relating to the sale of unwholesome food, prohibits the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine or any other butter substitute.

Maryland .- It is prohibited to manufacture oleomargarine, butterine, etc., or to sell or offer the same for sale.

Massachusetts.—Section 17, chapter 56, Public Statutes, prohibits the sale of any substance made in imitation or semblance of butter, and which is not produced exclusively from milk or cream, unless branded or marked "adulterated butter" or "oleomargarine." Retailers must see that each package is accompanied by a label or wrapper conspicuously bearing the words "adulterated butter," or "oleomargarine."

Michigan.—An act approved June 9, 1887, prohibits the sale as butter or for butter of any oleomargarine, butterine, or other article or substance resembling butter not made exclusively from milk or cream. The act also requires conspicuous notices to be posted up in hotels, restaurants, and other similar places using imitation butter, and furnishing food to persons paying for the same.

Minnesota.—An act approved March 2, 1887, being supplementary to and in aid of an act of March 5, 1885, prohibits the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine or adulterated butter. It is also prohibited to have in possession oleomargarine or other similar butter substitutes that have been colored to resemble natural butter.

Mississippi.—An act approved March 9, 1882, provides that every person dealing in oleomargarine, or other similarly manufactured but. ter, must distinctly mark or brand the same "oleomargarine," or with whatever name it may be known by, and requires every dealer in the article to pay a privilege tax of $50.

Missouri.—The law requires that the name of any substance made in imitation of butter shall be clearly and indelibly branded, marked or labeled upon the packages. Hotels, boarding-houses, etc., serving oleomargarine must clearly and legibly mark the vessel in which such compound is served with the words "oleomargarine" or "impure butter."

Montana,—Any article or compound not the exclusive product of the dairy is oleomargarine. Each package containing such substance must be marked "oleomargarine butter." In cases of retail sales the purchaser must be furnished with a label bearing the printed words "oleomargarine butter." Hotels, restaurants, boarding-houses, etc., using oleomargarine, butterine, or any other butter substitutes, shall post up three notices in the English language and one in the German language conspicuously in the rooms where meals are served, bearing the true and common name of the substitute over the words "used here instead of butter."

Nebraska.--An act which took effect February 24, 1883, provides that any article in semblance of natural butter, that is not made exclusively from milk or cream, shall be distinctly and durably branded, stamped, or marked "oleomargarine" or "butterine." Retailers must deliver with each parcel a label bearing the words "oleomargarine" or "butterme."

Nevada.—Under an act approved February 4, 1881, all packages containing any article in semblance of natural butter manufactured or offered for sale, and which is not made exclusively from milk or cream. must bear the word "oleomargarine" distinctly branded or marked thereon.

New Hampshire.—A law of August 26, 1885, provides against the sale of butter substitutes unless they are colored pink. This requirement renders the law practically prohibitory.

New Jersey.—An act of March 22, 1886, provides against the sale of oleomargarine or any substance in semblance of natural butter except when the tubs, pails, boxes, firkins, vessels, or other packages containing the same are marked or labeled with the words "oleomargarine." "imitation butter," etc., and have painted thereon a black stripe, at least 3 inches wide, midway between the top and bottom, and completely encircling the package.

An act supplemental to the above, approved April 21, 1887, prohibits the sale or having in possession for purposes of sale of oleomargarine, butterine, etc., containing any coloring matter whatever, and requires retail dealers selling less than the original package to furnish the purchaser with a printed card or notice of the nature of the substance.

New Mexico.—Section 4 of a food act of February 28, 1889, makes it a misdemeanor to sell any article of food which is not of the nature, substance, and quality of the article demanded by the purchaser.

New York.—The law of this State, as amended June 4, 1886, is prohibitive.

North Carolina.—There is no law in this State relative to oleomargarine.

North Dakota.—Under the law of this State any one selling or offering for sale adulterated butter, or oleomargarine, without labeling, branding, or marking the substances "adulterated butter" or "oleomargarine," or, in case of retail sales, without delivering to the purchaser a label or wrapper bearing these words in printed letters, shall forfeit $100 for the first offense, and for every subsequent violation. $200.

Ohio .- An act passed March 7, 1890, to take effect May 1, following, prohibits the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine if the substance is made in semblance of butter. Section 2 of the act reads:

* * It is further provided that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine in separate and distinct form, and in such manner as will advise the consumer of its real character, free from any coloring matter or other ingredient causing it to look like or to appear to be butter.

Note.—A letter dated October 30, 1890, received as this report goes to press, from the collector of internal revenue at Cleveland, Ohio, states

. . * I might add that the oleomargarine business is at a high tide here since the first of the month and that the State law is practically inoperative.

Oregon .- Under an act approved February 25, 1889, oleomargarine and other butter substitutes can not be sold unless they are so marked as to plainly establish their true character and distinguish them from genuine dairy products. In public dining and eating rooms where such substances are served, guests shall be informed of the fact by notice printed upon the bill of fare, or conspicuously posted in the room.

Pennsylvania .-- An act of May 21, 1885, provides against the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine or other imitation or adulterated butter.

The act referred to repealed an act of May 24, 1883, regulating the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine. It has been vigorously resisted by manufacturers and dealers. On May 3, 1887, it was declared constitutional by the Supreme Court. Nevertheless, there are several manufacturers in Philadelphia and a large number of dealers in Pittsburgh.

Rhode Island.—Chapter 126, Public Statutes of Rhode Island, 1882, requires that every tub, firkin, box, etc., containing any substance in semblance of butter, and which is not made exclusively from milk or cream, shall bear the word "oleomargarine." Retailers of the substance must deliver to the purchaser a written or printed card bearing the word "oleomargarine,"

South Carolina. - An act approved December 22, 1885, makes it a misdemeanor to fraudulently adulterate, for purposes of sale, any article

South Dakota -The office is unable to furnish satisfactory information respecting the law of this State.

Tennessee - This State has no law upon the subject.

Texas.—Article 393, Chapter 2, Penal Code, provides punishment for the fraudulent adulteration, for purposes of sale, of any article intended Utah.—This Territory has no laws relative to oleomargarine, etc.

Vermont.—Section 3736 of the revised laws of Vermont, 1880, provides that any substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, manufactured or exposed for sale, must be distinetly branded, marked, or stamped with the word "oleomargarine." In cases of retail sales the seller shall deliver therewith to the purchaser a label bearing the written or printed word "oleomargarine."

Under an act approved November 18, 1886, imposing penalties for knowingly selling or offering to sell as butter any oleomargarine, butterine, or kindred substances, it is required that hotel, restaurant, boarding-house keepers, etc., who knowingly serve oleomargarine to guests. shall cause a placard bearing the words "oleomargarine used here," to be kept conspicuously posted on the wall of each room where food is furnished.

Virginia.—Under the laws of this State (see sections 1900 and 1901. code of 1887) all imitation butter manufactured for sale, or offered for sale, must be distinctly and durably stamped, branded, or marked with the word "oleomargarine" in plain Roman letters not less than half an inch square. In cases of retail sales the seller must deliver therewith to the purchaser a written or printed label bearing the word "oleomar. garine."

Washington .- There is no law in force in this State restricting the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine.

West Virginia.-By an act approved February 28, 1885, it is prohib. ited to manufacture or sell any substance having the semblance of butter, which is not, exclusive of harmless coloring matter, salt, etc., the product of the dairy, unless the substance bears its true and appropriate name. The substance must also bear a statement of the fact that it is not made wholly from pure cream or milk, or a person selling to a consumer must furnish the latter a written or printed notice of the Wisconsin.—An act approved April 16, 1889, makes it a misdemeanor to manufacture or sell as or for butter any oleaginous substance or compound not produced from milk or cream.

Section 1, Chapter 185, Laws of 1887, requires persons dealing in or serving to guests any oleomargarine, butterine, or other similar substance to post up notices to that effect.

An act approved March 5, 1879, provides penalties for deceptive labeling of any package of food, drugs, or liquors.

Wyoming.—There is no law in this State relative to oleomargarine or other similar substances.

REPORT OF THE MICROSCOPIST.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, August 11, 1890.

Sir: I have the honor to submit the following report of the work done in the laboratory since July 1, 1889:

During the past year sixty-eight samples have been received and analyzed. Of this number five were substances submitted by collectors of internal revenue for decision under sections 14 and 15 of the act of August 2, 1886, three of which proved on analysis to be butter and two oleomargarine. From six factories were received fifteen samples of the ingredients they employed and ten samples of their finished products. Thirty-five samples of fermented liquors were likewise examined.

No samples were received under the provisions of section 11 of the act of October 12, 1888.

EXAMINATION OF TYPE-WRITER RIBBONS AND OF MUCHAGE FOR THE STATIONERY DIVISION.

In compliance with the request of the Honorable Geo. S. Batcheller, Assistant Secretary, contained in his letter of May 14, to examine several samples of type-writer ribbons, submitted under the call for bids in the Stationery Division of this Department, in regard to the permanency and enduring qualities of the writings made with them, I carried out several experiments.

The samples of ribbons submitted for examination were found to readily yield their coloring matter to both water and alcohol, and by repeated washings in either medium nearly the entire coloring matter was dissolved out leaving the tape but slightly dyed. A length of one foot of each ribbon was taken and washed with 95 per cent. alcohol; on an average they lost more than one-third of their original weight. The paper on which writings were made with these ribbons from new surfaces were cut up into inch strips. A set of these strips was placed in a photographic printing frame, a portion of each strip being covered by a dark, non-translucent paper and exposed to the direct rays of the sun. This experiment was continued till the strips had been exposed one hundred hours in all. After four hours' exposure on comparing the exposed with the non-exposed portions, no change or fading was perceptible in one, a slight fading in color in another, and a most decided change in color in all the other strips. The changes thus noted continued till the experiment ended, at which time some of the strips were so faded that the letters could not be deciphered. Another set of the strips was treated with 95 per cent. alcohol for 10 minutes. Two of the samples had their coloring matter discharged by this treatment except the insoluble carbon they contained, which was unaffected. The other samples were nearly obliterated. Treatment of a fresh set of sample strips with water, chlorinated soda (Labarraque's solution) of 10 per cent. strength, then washing with water and afterwards with a 10 per cent. solution of oxalic acid, care being taken to avoid as far as possible any mechanical abrasion of the paper during this treatment, and to keep for the same length of time, five minutes, the strips in the different solutions, resulted in all the samules being percentibly folded one however having the best impression; some of samples being perceptibly faded, one, however, having the best impression; some of the samples were completely obliterated. All these experiments showed that one of the ribbons and the writings made from it was undoubtedly the best of all the samples submitted in regard to permanency and enduring qualities. As this ribbon was likewise offered at a price 66 per cent. less than the cost of the one hitherto used, and as this latter gave less satisfactory results when similarly tested, the practical benefit derived from the cost of the one hitherto used, and fit derived from the investigation is apparent.

Samples of inks and of mucilages were also examined for the Stationery Division. Samples of the goods delivered by the accepted bidders have likewise been examined and compared with the original samples, and where such goods have fallen below these standards the attention of the proper officers of this Department has been drawn to the same and the contractor asked to explain the deficiency.

EXAMINATION OF FERMENTED LIQUORS.

Much delay has repeatedly been caused by the insufficient amount of samples sent in by collectors and agents of internal revenue for purposes of examination, and likewise by the lack of all marks and seals for identification. To remedy this I respectfully fally recommend that hereafter every sample of fermented or distilled liquor submitted for analysis shall measure at least one quart and be put up in a glass vessel securely corked and sealed. By means of a label firmly affixed to the vessel and marked and numbered with marks and numbers to correspond with those on the package from which the sample is taken the samples can be identified, and in case the package is without proper identifying marks they should be placed upon the package by the officer submitting the sample. The label should also contain the name of the officer submitting the sample, the date and place, the district, by whom produced, the character of the liquid, and such other facts as may help in the identification of the sample. Samples should be forwarded securely packed in wooden boxes.

When it is remembered that most fermented liquors contain less than 6 per cent, and distilled liquors less than two-tenths of 1 per cent, of total solids, the remainder being water and alcohol, the necessity of a large volume for purposes of analysis is evident.

ANALYSIS OF FERMENTED LIQUORS.

To determine whether a liquor by whatever name or description offered for sale is a "fermented" or "malt" liquor, as designated by law, it is necessary to establish two facts: (1) That it has undergone an alcoholic fermentation and (2) that it has been derived from malt or a malt substitute, or, in other words, that it is similar to beer, lager beer, ale, or porter in its general properties.

The first fact is established by subjecting a weighed quantity of the liquor to distillation in a closed vessel, saving the first half of the distillate, which will contain all of the alcohol originally present, and applying the proper chemical and physical tests to show the presence and likewise the amount of ethyl alcohol. Sometimes in improperly clarified biquors, the yeast germs may be detected in the sediment when examined under the microscope. The second fact is mainly a corollary from the first. Every saccharine and starchy substance is capable, when properly fermented, of producing ethyl alcohol, and chemical analysis can not distinguish between the ethyl alcohol derived from malted barley by fermentation from that produced from malted corn, or other malt substitute. Sugar, grape sugar or glucose, honey, molasses, wheat, rye, corn, rice, and the starches of other grains can all be used as malt substitutes.

On allowing a malt infusion, worts, to undergo alcoholic fermentation, its specific gravity diminishes to an extent depending on the amount of alcohol produced; the weight of alcohol being approximately 50 per cent. of the saccharine matter destroyed by the fermentation. It is not, however, the brewer's object to produce the maximum amount of alcohol from the materials employed, as it is with the distiller, but a palatable beverage whose alcoholic contents will vary according to its intended use from nearly 7 per cent. by weight to less than 1 per cent. About 8 per cent. by weight of alcohol would be produced from a standard English worts if allowed to ferment as much as possible.

In this country, however, the tax is assessed on the finished product, whatever its alcoholic strength or the amount of the materials employed.

The following table shows the average of numerous analyses of domestic and foreign fermented liquors:

An inspection of the table shows that there is very little difference in the average composition of fermented liquors whether made in this country or abroad. Dr. Crampton found the average "original gravity" of the worts, used in the twenty-eight samples of the different brands of beer placed on the Washington market and representing the products of fifteen of the largest breweries in this country, to be 1.0597, a figure slightly above the English standard, which would imply that an equal amount of malt or malt substitutes was used in American practice.

In October last the revenue agent at Philadelphia sent in eleven samples of lager

In October last the revenue agent at Philadelphia sent in eleven samples of lager beer, taken at the different breweries in that city, for analysis, together with a statement of the amount of malt used in the preceding six months to make a barrel of beer.

No trustworthy conclusions can be drawn from these analyses in regard to the amount of materials used, as no precaution was taken by the revenue agent to weigh the materials and follow the different operations until finally he obtained the finished product. An investigation properly conducted would undoubtedly result in much useful information.

Twenty-four samples of fermented liquors consisting of "hop soda," "corn beer," "weiss beer," etc., were likewise examined and found to contain from 0.8 to 3.00 per cent. of alcohol by weight, according to the amount of fermentation and materials employed.

THE NEW LABORATORY.

In April, room was allotted by the chief clerk of this Department for a new laboratory; the space thus provided is 21 feet 6 inches wide by 34 feet 6 inches long. I prepared the plans required for the tables, hoods, sink, etc. The laboratory tables were made in 6 feet 6 inch sections for ease in handling and construction. These tables have alternately rows of drawers and cupboards. The cupboards are set back 6 inches from the face of the table. The tops are 1½ inch thick sloping to within 6 inches of the back so as to drain readily into the sinks; they are covered with sheet lead, and project 6 inches beyond the face of the table. The gas nipples project from the back, and the flow of gas is controlled by globe valves with handles placed on the front of the tables below the tops; a very convenient arrangement and obviating the danger of burning one's arm by bringing it in contact with the flame of a burner whose supply is regulated by a valve at the back of the table. Water and steam connections are provided for the tables. Three hoods have been put in, but do not draw as well as they might owing to their not extending through the roof of the building. A space has been left for screening off the balances from the fumes and heat of the laboratory proper, but as yet no partition has been put up, neither have the balances been provided with sufficiently heavy tables to diminish the vibrations of the building as much as possible.

The new laboratory is large enough for the accommodation of four chemists and a messenger (to wash up the glass and other apparatus), in conducting experiments and analyses on the general line of work now carried on, viz, alcohol and fat determinations. No facilities, however, exist for sugar determinations, which demand a thoroughly darkened and well-ventilated room for the polariscopic readings, nor is it supplied with the expensive polariscopes needed for such work. The determination of the saccharine strength of a raw sugar by means of a polariscope occupies about half an hour, assuming the necessary reagents and apparatus to be in readiness, the accurate weighing out of the sample and getting it into the proper state of solution taking up most of this time. The actual reading of the degree of rotation of the clear solution in the polariscope does not require more than five minutes. Where several samples of sugar are to be read daily, one man can make about twenty determinations.

Respectfully submitted.

EDGAR RICHARDS, Microscopist.

REPORT OF THE CHEMIST.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT. OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, Washington, D. C., September 15, 1890.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith my report for the last three months of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1890, covering the time I was discharging the duties of the office of chemist.

The transfer of the laboratory at Chicago, Ill., to the Treasury building having been ordered, I went to that city on April 10, with instructions to pack all apparatus and chemicals and ship the same to Washington. After my return, in conjunction with the microscopist, I proceeded to the fitting up of a new laboratory in the room allotted to us for this purpose, and upon the arrival of the apparatus from Chicago it was installed therein as part of the equipment. As the work of the plumbers. carpenters, etc., upon the new laboratory progressed very slowly, it was not ready for occupancy until late in July, 1890, and the greater part of my time until the close of the fiscal year, with the exception of a few analyses made in the old laboratory and of the time required for a supervision of the work, I was occupied in making a translation of a considerable portion of the French laws and regulations in regard to internal revenue for the use of this office.

In the early part of the month of June, at the request of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the Department of Agriculture, I made a microscopical examination of a number of samples of lard, sent to him by the Dairy Commissioner of the State of Minnesota, and supposed to be adulterated. The examination was carried on in the laboratory of the Department of Agriculture, and the results, which showed a number of the samples to contain beef fat, were reported to Dr. Wiley. On June 12, in accordance with instructions received from Hon. Geo. S. Batcheller.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury, I reported to Hon. J. M. Rusk, Secretary of Agriculture, for the purpose of acting in conjunction with Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the Department, who was engaged in an investigation of the methods of analysis of sugars used by the customs laboratories in Philadelphia, Boston, and New York. Since the close of the last fiscal year I have completed a translation of the laws relating to the taxation of sugar, now in force in the German Empire.

Very respectfully.

C. A. CRAMPTON, Chemist.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

JOHN W. MASON. Commissioner.

Hon. WILLIAM WINDOM. Secretary of the Treasury.

Note.—The following example is given as an illustration of the use that can be made of Table C in connection with Table E in ascertaining the collections, approximately, for each State and Torritory, on spirits, tobacco, fermented liquors, etc., for any year from 1864 to 1890, when such information is desired and a report for that year is not at hand. In the calculation of the percentages, there is always a remainder. Hence in reversing the process and multiplying the per cent. (quotient) by the divisor, the product will not equal the dividend exactly, but it will be so near to it as to answer most practical purposes.

The por cent. of spirits for Illinois in 1885 was .304346. (See p. 246, Rep. 1890.) The total collections on spirits in the United States that year were $67,511,208.63. (See p. 233, Rep. 1890.) $67,511,208.63 × .304346 = $20,546,768.30. The actual collections were $20,546,765.19 (see p. 27, Rep. 1885), showing a difference of only $1.11 between the actual collections and the collections as obtained by calculation.

D.—APPENDIX No. 1, SHOWING THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE INTERNAL-REVENUE COLLECTIONS IN THE DISTRICTS, STATES, TERRITORIES, AND YEARS BELOW NAMED, AS REPORTED BY COLLECTORS AND PUBLISHED IN THE SEVERAL ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE COMMISSIONER, AND THE TRUE COLLECTIONS.

[Note.—These differences were mostly discovered at the final settlement of the accounts of such collectors as have retired from office after the reports for the years in which they occurred had been printed. Hence their appearance in this form.

To ascertain the exact amount collected in any one of the following-named districts, States, or Territories prior to July 1, 1889, add to or subtract from as the case may be, the collections for that district, State, or Territory, in the "tofal" column in Table D. the sum or sums entered opposite the same district, State, or Territory in this appendix. The result will be the aggregate amount collected.

On pages 320, 321, 322, 323, the signs (+) and (—) are used to denote the amounts to be added and subtracted, respectively.]

^{*}A part of the first proviso of section 59, act of July 20, 1868, reads as follows: "A tax of $4 on each barrel, counting 40 gallons of proof spirits to the barrel, shall be assessed and collected from the owner of any distilled spirits which may be in bonded warehouse at the date of the taking effect of this act, to be paid whenever the same shall be withdrawn from such warehouse." This provise, in effect, makes the tax 60 cents per gallon on 24,383,951 gallons in warehouse at the time of the passage

t Section 56 of act approved July 20, 1868, provided that all distilled spirits in bonded warehouse at the time of the passage of that act not withdrawn within nine months should be forfeited to the United States. The act of April 10, 1869, extended the time of the withdrawal of such spirits to June 30, 1869, but imposed a tax of 1 cent per gallou for each month after April 20, 1869. The receipts on account of this addititional tax were $51,695.27.

NOTE.—The act of July 1, 1862, went into operation September 1, 1862. The act of March 3, 1863, provided that the tax on fermented liquors should be 60 cents per barrel from the date of the passage of that act to April 1, 1864. Hence the tax of 60 cents per barrel having expired by limitation April 1, 1864, the tax of 81 per barrel under act of July 1, 1862, was again revived, and this rate, under different acts, has continued in force from and including that date.
