

Linda L. Tanton

Mrs. Tanton was appointed as Maryland's Deputy Comptroller in January, 2006. In that capacity, she is the Chief Operating Officer for the agency. Prior to that, she served as Director of the Comptroller's Compliance Division, a position she held from 1994-2005. She originally started her career in State service as a Staff Attorney/ Hearing Officer in the Maryland Comptroller's office dealing with sales and use tax issues.

Ms. Tanton is a graduate of Wake Forest University. She earned her law degree from the University of Baltimore and later received her L.L.M. in Tax Law from Georgetown University. She was admitted to the Maryland Bar.

Ms. Tanton serves on the board of the Maryland Supplemental Retirement System and is the immediate past President of the Federation of Tax Administrators.