Meeting convened at 9 a.m. at IRS Headquarters, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Room 2615, Washington, DC.

Welcome

- John Lipold, ETAAC DFO and Acting Director, IRS National Public Liaison, opened the session, welcomed attendees, and reviewed housekeeping and meeting objectives.
- Quorum confirmed; agenda adopted without amendments.

Opening Remarks

- Vernon Barnett, ETAAC Chair, highlighted the committee's role in advancing electronic tax administration, integrity, and taxpayer experience.
- Emphasized collaboration with IRS operating divisions and stakeholders to implement recommendations.

ETAAC Report Presentation

- The committee presented the 2025 ETAAC Report, covering:
 - Modernization priorities for e-file, identity verification, and fraud prevention.
 - Data sharing and safeguards improvements across federal, state, and local partners.
 - Taxpayer digital services enhancements and accessibility.
 - Workforce and vendor ecosystem readiness for emerging technologies, including AI.
- Key discussion points:
 - Need for standardized safeguards protocols and interagency playbooks.
 - Expansion of pilot programs for real-time analytics and anomaly detection.
 - Measurable KPIs to track adoption and impact on compliance and burden reduction.
- Action items:
 - IRS to review prioritized recommendations and provide feasibility feedback.
 - ETAAC to circulate implementation timelines and stakeholder engagement plan.

Break

- Short recess; no business conducted.

Response to Report & Farewell to Departing Members

- Billy Long, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, expressed appreciation for the committee's work and noted alignment with IRS transformation initiatives.
- Amy Miller, ETAAC Vice Chair, recognized departing members for service and contributions; certificates of appreciation presented.
- Comments from operating divisions underscored commitment to safeguards and taxpayer protection.

Closing Remarks

- Vernon Barnett reiterated next steps: IRS response memo, working sessions on safeguards, and stakeholder briefings.
- Jim Clifford, Director, Return Integrity & Compliance Services, acknowledged collaboration on identity protection and fraud mitigation.

John Lipold closed the meeting, confirming distribution of materials and timelines for follow-up.
